

FRIENDS OF THE DPL

What We Do

- Promote the Duluth Public Library as a vital part of the spirit of our community
- Raise money for materials, equipment and programs not covered by the general library budget
- Conduct fundraising events for the library including Duluth's largest Annual Book Sale
- Work with the Library Board and the Duluth Library Foundation
- Publish a newsletter
- Co-sponsor, with the UMD Library, the Annual Northeast Minnesota Book Awards
- Participate in volunteer opportunities

Benefits of Becoming a Friend of the Library

- Admission to the members-only pre-sale at the Annual Book Sale
- Receive our newsletter and other communications with information about library events
- Opportunities to volunteer, find new friends and make your voice heard
- Satisfaction in knowing you have helped to make a great library even better!

Who Are The Friends?

The Friends of the Duluth Public Library is a membership based organization that assists with the development and promotion of the Duluth Public Library and advocates its importance in the community.

Money raised at events hosted by the Friends is contributed to the library and used to assist with the purchase of resources and equipment such as books, database services and e-readers. In addition, the Friends help fund library programs like the Kaleidoscope Series, which is a free entertainment series for children held throughout the summer in the Main Library Plaza; and reading programs for all ages each summer and winter.
