

Great Websites for Science Fair

Projects & Experiments

Girls and boys, we hope you will participate in our Great Oak Science Fair with an experiment or project that REALLY interests you!

If you need ideas to get started, or simply wish to check out many other great projects, please take a look at these websites!

Science Buddies

http://www.sciencebuddies.org/science-fair-projects/project_ideas.shtml#helpmefindaproject

Best tool on the internet to help a student find an appropriate project.

Discovery.com: Science Fair Central

<http://school.discoveryeducation.com/sciencefaircentral/>

"Creative investigations into the real world." This site provides a complete guide to science fair projects. Check out the 'Handbook' which features information from Janice VanCleave, a popular author who provides everything you need to know for success. You can even send her a question about your project.

Cool Science

<http://www.cool-science-projects.com/science-projects-for-kids.html> Get motivated - do cool science projects based on what you enjoy. We have a guide that walks you through the process along with countless tips and ideas to get you started. Turn the hobby that you love into a project you'll enjoy doing.

Science Fair Idea Exchange <http://scienceclub.org/>

This site has lists of science fair project ideas and a chance to share your ideas with others on the web!

Try Science

<http://www.tryscience.com>

Science resource for home that gives you labs to try and 400 helpful links all related to science

Neuroscience for Kids: Successful Science Fair Projects

<http://faculty.washington.edu/chudler/experi.html>

Neuroscience for Kids has been created for all students who would like to learn about the nervous system. Discover the exciting world of the brain, spinal cord, neurons and the sense

Sci4kids – Science Agriculture, and you

<http://www.ars.usda.gov/is/kids/AgSciProjects/ideas.htm>

Agriculture doesn't have its own category in science fairs, but it is a part of many of the "official" categories. Here are a few basic ideas for agricultural science projects. Use these ideas as a jumping-off place for coming up with your own project.

Cyber-Fair

<http://www.all-science-fair-projects.com>

Science Fair Projects for all levels. We have hundreds of ideas for every science topic, from Astronomy to Zoology! Offers sample topics, as well as tips and hints for thinking up your own ideas. Also shows how to find topics that are interesting to you. Let your imagination run wild.

Science Fair Primer

<http://users.rcn.com/tedrowan/primer.html>

A site to help students get started and run a science fair project.

Internet Public Library <http://www.ipl.org/div/projectguide/>

Are you looking for some help with a science fair project? If so, then you have come to the right place. The IPL will guide you to a variety of web site resources, leading you through the necessary steps to successfully complete a science experiment.