

Useful Sites For Students Interested In Automotive Careers In Wisconsin:

www.autocareerstoday.org

Serves as an online clearinghouse for the auto industry's career information program, including salaries and available training.

www.watda.org

Wisconsin Automobile & Truck Dealers Foundation has scholarship and career information about the retail automotive industry in Wisconsin.

www.adamm.com

Automobile Dealers Association of Mega Milwaukee provides training classes in automotive sales and service technology in the Milwaukee area.

www.nada.org/Advocacy+Outreach/Auto+Career+Resources/Student Resources/Resources+for+Students.htm

The National Auto Dealers Association's guide to careers in the automotive industry.

ayes.org

AYES - Automotive Youth Educational Systems) is a dynamic partnership among participating automotive manufacturers, participating local dealers, and selected local high schools/tech prep schools.

natef.org

NATEF - The National Automotive Technicians Education Foundation provides career information and certification of numerous automotive technical careers and how to get started and achieve certification in automotive training programs.

www.careervoyages.gov/automotive-main.cfm

Excellent site for career choices in the industry.

www.witechcolleges.com

Wisconsin's Technical Colleges provide diploma and degree program areas of study at 16 campuses statewide.

www.hybridtechnologies.com

Changing the world by reinventing power.