The Healing Power of Telling Your Story

Kris Landry's Story

Author and storyteller Kris Landry will take us on a transformative journey through her service as a hospice chaplain. In working with dying patients, she realized one thing: each had a story they were dying to tell. By helping patients share their stories, Kris found the courage to tell her own.

Speaker, and author of The Last Tipi: A Journey to Healing through Storytelling, Kris will encourage those present to do the same.
