Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church
2018

PURPOSE STATEMENT

Who We Are in Christ, Facing the 21st Century

We, the members of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church, in order to carry out God's mission and move forward together into the next century, profess our life together in Christ and our desire to set forth a united strategy for the work of His Church. We express our desire to continue to be a Presbyterian and Reformed church committed to the Lordship of Jesus Christ and to the Bible as the Word of God.

Rooted in and shaped by a living tradition, we are part of the new creation in Christ which God is bringing into existence. Therefore, we are committed to:

- The worship of the Triune God.
- The Holy Scriptures as the basis for our faith and activity.
- Unity with other believers in Christ.
- Total stewardship of life, including tithing of time, talent and money.
- Excellence in educating and equipping leaders for tomorrow.
- Loving and caring for one another and for other people.
- Spreading the Gospel to all parts of the world.
- Evaluating and changing church structure and priorities in order to meet the challenges of the future while preserving the best of the past.

To this end and in humble reliance upon the enabling power of the Holy Spirit, we covenant together to pray steadfastly that God will open doors of opportunity so that we may declare the riches of Christ. "Let us not grow weary of well-doing, for in due season we shall reap, if we do not lose heart." (Galatians 6:9).

CONCERNING THE CHURCH

Form of Government 1.2

A. JESUS CHRIST, THE HEAD OF THE CHURCH

1. The only King and Head of the Church is the Lord Jesus Christ, to whom all power in heaven and on earth has been given by God the Father, who "...raised him from the dead and made him sit at his right hand..., far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in that which is to come; and he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church, which is his body, the fulness of him who fills all in all." (Ephesians 1:20-23)

2. Christ, being "...ascended far above all the heavens that he might fill all things," (Ephesians 4:10) gave gifts to His Church. Since the ascension of Jesus Christ to heaven, He is present with the Church by His Word and Spirit. From His throne of glory, He rules the Church through His Word and Spirit by the ministry of men, and the benefits of all His functions of prophet, priest and king are effectually applied by His Holy Spirit.

B. NATURE OF THE CHURCH

1. There is but one Church set forth in the Scriptures. This Church in all ages is one and the same, and consists of those who by faith are in the Lord Jesus Christ, together with their children.

2. The visible unity of the Church, though obscured, is not destroyed by its division into different denominations of professing Christians; and all of those maintaining the Word and sacraments of the Lord Jesus Christ in their fundamental integrity are to be recognized as branches of this one visible Church.

3. The ministry, laws, worship and sacraments of the New Testament Church were given either directly by Christ Himself, or by His Apostles after His ascension and the gift of the Holy Spirit, or have been formulated by inference from and in agreement with their teachings.

C. MISSION AND MESSAGE OF THE CHURCH

1. The mission of the Church is a mission of witness and ministry. Christ called the people of the Church "witnesses." Paul saw God as giving gifts to equip the Church's people for the work of ministry.

2. All that the Church says and does is to be a witness to Jesus Christ, God's living Word, as He is spoken of in the Holy Scriptures, God's written Word. God has sent His Church into the world that the Church will present Jesus Christ through preaching, witnessing, teaching, sacrament, worship and both individual and corporate Christian living and action. All of the Church's people in every phase of their living are to be God's ministers to the world by being servants of His Son, the King of the Church.

3. God the Father has given the Holy Spirit through Christ to the world to reveal and to make the ministry of the Church effective.

4. The message of the Church's ministry is the message of reconciliation. Through the varieties of its ministry, the Church is to bear witness that "...God was in Christ reconciling the world to himself..." (2 Corinthians 5:19) to the end that all people might be reconciled both to God and to one another.

MANUAL OF AUTHORITIES AND DUTIES
OFFICERS AND AGENCIES
GENERAL SYNOD
of the
ASSOCIATE REFORMED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
[Revised following 2018 Meeting of the General Synod]

INTRODUCTION

The General Synod is the highest court of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church, representing in one body all of its particular presbyteries. Its primary responsibility is the initiation, planning, organization, and administration of programs designed to enable it to carry on the mission of God in Christ's Church by word and deed in the General Synod, the congregation, the presbytery, and the whole world.

To carry out its responsibilities, the General Synod has power to elect officers and to institute and supervise the agencies (used to refer to boards, committees, and ecclesiastical commission) necessary in the general work of the church and to make appointments to such labors. In its deliberations, the General Synod has provided for the election of seven officers and has determined to institute and make appointments to nine boards, one ecclesiastical commission, and eight standing committees. Drawing their authorities and responsibilities from the Form of Government of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church, these officers, boards, ecclesiastical commission, and committees implement the work approved by the General Synod.

In addition to the specific requirements included in our Form of Government, the General Synod has established other guidelines pertinent to all agencies:

1. All agencies will seek to comply with local, state, and federal laws, and those agencies which incorporate will do so under the laws of the state in which their respective headquarters are situated.
2. Terms of service for all appointees shall begin on July 1 of the year in which appointment is made, provided, however, nominees elected by General Synod to fill unexpired terms begin service upon the action of Synod. (2007 Synod)
3. Persons who have served for more than a half term on a board or committee are ineligible to succeed themselves, except as specifically authorized in the Manual of Authorities and Duties. (1990 Synod)
4. Employees are ineligible for nomination to a board or committee under whose jurisdiction that person is employed. This includes mission developers. Any employee of an agency of the General Synod of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church who serves another board or committee of the General Synod or Presbytery must make it a first priority of his or her service to avoid even the appearance of the impropriety of conflict of interest due to his or her service.
5. Ex-officio members, including those defined herein as "Presbytery Representatives," have the same privileges as those members appointed by name. Advisory members have all privileges except the privilege of making motions, attendance in executive sessions convened by the board, committee, or commission, and the privilege of vote. (2000 Synod)
6. All chairmen of Synod's boards and committees with the exception of the Erskine Board must be members of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church.

The element necessary for the effective discharge of the responsibilities of the agencies of our denomination is dedicated Christians who will submit themselves to the leadership and direction of the Holy Spirit and persons who are informed of the authority and responsibilities to which they are called. It is the purpose of this manual to provide a description of the authorities and duties of the office and agency to which persons have been called to serve, and to show their work as it relates to Synod's work as a whole.

This manual reflects the existing directives of the General Synod and the Standards of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church. The Manual of Authorities and Duties shall be updated at the close of each General Synod meeting as needed so as to reflect the current status of authorities and duties as directed by the action of the General Synod. No material shall be included in the manual which is contrary to the Standards of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church.

In compliance with the directive of the 1985 General Synod, the Rules of Order for the General Synod are included herein.

OFFICERS
GENERAL SYNOD
ASSOCIATE REFORMED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The Form of Government 12.11 states that "the officers of the General Synod shall be a moderator, a vice moderator, a principal clerk, a second clerk, a bill clerk, a treasurer and such other officers as are necessary." The General Synod in its deliberations has elected or appointed the following officers:

Moderator
Vice Moderator
Principal Clerk
Reading Clerk
Bill Clerk
Assistant Clerk
Treasurer of Synod's Funds
Archivist
Parliamentarian

The Form of Government does not specify the procedures for selecting the term of office, or the duties of the officers. The General Synod has, however, through practice and through its Rules of Order established election procedures, terms of office, and duties of its officers.

The officers of the General Synod are described herein:

MODERATOR OF THE GENERAL SYNOD

Manner of Selection: At the annual meeting of the General Synod, one or more teaching or ruling elders are nominated as Moderator-Elect, and voting is by secret ballot. The Moderator-Elect becomes Moderator at the first new business session at the next stated meeting of the General Synod. If the Moderator-Elect is unable to serve as Moderator-Elect, the Vice Moderator-Elect shall assume the office of Moderator Elect and the most recent Past Moderator shall assume the office of Vice Moderator-Elect. When an office has been filled by a Past Moderator, the first order of new business at the next meeting of the General Synod will be the election of an officer or officers to fill any office assumed by said Past Moderator. (1998 Synod)

Term of Office: One year from the first business session of the stated meeting of Synod following his election until the first new business session of the subsequent stated meeting of the General Synod.

When the retiring Moderator is a ruling elder, he shall have the privilege of the floor and voting rights in subsequent meetings of General Synod as long as he is a member in good standing in an ARP congregation. (2011 Synod)

Duties:

1. To preside over the meeting of the General Synod and to perform the duties of the presiding officer which shall include:
 - a. Open the sessions at the hour appointed.
 - b. Announce the business before the court.
 - c. State and put all questions properly brought before the court.
 - d. Take the vote and announce the result.
 - e. Decide all questions of order, subject to an appeal to the house by any two (2) members.
 - f. Appoint Moderator's Committees, subject to the approval of the Court.
2. To serve as Chairman of the Executive Board.

3. To represent the denomination at official functions he is requested to attend.
4. To serve as an advisory member of all boards, committees and the Ecclesiastical Commission.
5. To promote the work of the denomination in presbyteries and congregations and at special church gatherings.
6. To plan and arrange for the annual meeting of the General Synod and to encourage attendance with a pastoral letter from the Incoming Moderator to those churches that did not send a ruling elder to the previous meeting. This letter should be sent no later than January each year. (2002 Synod)
7. To make a report of his work to the General Synod.
8. To chair an annual meeting of the executive employees of the General Synod to discuss areas of mutual concern. (1990 Synod)

VICE MODERATOR OF THE GENERAL SYNOD

Manner of Selection: At the annual meeting of the General Synod, one or more teaching or ruling elders are nominated as Vice Moderator-Elect, and voting is by secret ballot. The Vice Moderator-Elect becomes Vice Moderator at the first new business session at the next stated meeting of the General Synod. If the Moderator-Elect is unable to serve as the Moderator-Elect, the Vice Moderator-Elect shall assume the office of Moderator-Elect and the most recent Past Moderator shall assume the office of Vice Moderator-Elect. When an office has been filled by a Past Moderator, the first order of new business at the next meeting of the General Synod will be the election of an officer or officers to fill any office assumed by said Past Moderator. In the event of the Moderator's death or his inability to perform the duties of his office within the first 180 days of his term of service, the Vice Moderator shall automatically become Moderator and shall nominate a Vice Moderator to the Executive Board of Synod which shall, acting on behalf of the General Synod, elect a Vice Moderator to fill the unexpired term. The records of the Synod shall certify that the initially elected Moderator and his successor, the Vice Moderator, were both Moderators of Synod for the year they served. (1998 Synod)

Term of Office: One year

Duties:

1. To serve as a member of the Executive Board.
2. To assist the Moderator as requested to do so.
3. To assume the duties of the Moderator in the absence of the Moderator.

PRINCIPAL CLERK OF THE GENERAL SYNOD (Revised, Synod 2012)

Manner of Selection: The Principal Clerk shall be nominated by the Committee on Nominations and shall be elected by the General Synod. If the Principal Clerk is unable to serve, his duties shall be assumed by the Assistant Clerk until such time as the General Synod elects a successor.

Term of Office: Four years. No officer of the court shall be elected to serve more than two consecutive terms in any single office.

Duties:

1. With respect to meetings of the General Synod:
 - a. To maintain the roll of the members and call it whenever required by the Court.
 - b. To record the proceedings and oversee the publication of the minutes of the proceedings.
 - c. To receive and record documents adopted by the Court.

- d. In conjunction with the Bill Clerk, to keep the record of all unfinished business to come before the Court.
- e. To sign all orders and official reports.
- f. To update the Manual of Authorities and Duties at the close of each General Synod meeting to reflect any applicable actions of the General Synod.
2. To receive and send all official communications on behalf of the General Synod.
3. In keeping with the "Procedure for the Circulation of Study Reports" of member churches of the North American Presbyterian and Reformed Council (NAPARC):
 - a. To report annually to the Secretary of NAPARC the subject and place available of any study report(s) adopted by our General Synod.
 - b. To send one copy of such study report(s) to the Stated Clerk of each NAPARC member church.
4. To represent and promote the work of the General Synod as opportunities permit.
5. To serve as a member and Secretary of the Executive Board of the General Synod.
6. To serve as chairman of the Executive Board's Committee on Administration.
7. To supervise the collection and reporting of denominational statistical data by the ARP Center.
8. To review the records of presbyteries and
 - a. provide such counsel and advice as is necessary to the presbytery clerks, and
 - b. report annually to the Executive Board with regard to matters found to be irregular or not in accord with the Form of Government.
9. To serve as an advisory member, when requested, of Committee on Inter-Church Relations.
10. When necessary, to answer questions for congregations, presbyteries, boards, and agencies related to ecclesiastical procedure and church polity as stated in the Form of Government.

READING CLERK OF THE GENERAL SYNOD

(Revised, Synod 2012)

Manner of Selection: The Reading Clerk shall be nominated to the General Synod by the Committee on Nominations and shall be elected by the General Synod.

Term of Office: Four years. No officer of the court shall be elected to serve more than two consecutive terms in any single office.

Duties: With respect to meetings of the General Synod:

- a. To present the business to the Court in the order determined by the Moderator and/or the agenda.
- b. In the absence of any directives from the Moderator or an order of the day, to determine the order in which business is to be taken from the table.
- c. To read the reports to the Court except when a representative of the particular board or committee wishes to present the report.

BILL CLERK OF THE GENERAL SYNOD

(Revised, Synod 2012)

- Manner of Selection: The Assistant Clerk shall be nominated to the General Synod by the Committee on Nominations and shall be elected by the General Synod.
- Term of Office: Four years. No officer of the court shall be elected to serve more than two consecutive terms in any single office.
- Duties: At the meeting of the General Synod, and in the absence of any clerk, the Assistant Clerk will perform the duties of the absent clerk.

TREASURER OF SYNOD'S FUNDS
(Revised, Synod 2012)

- Manner of Selection: The Treasurer of Synod's Funds shall be nominated to the General Synod by the Committee on Nominations and shall be elected by the General Synod. The Committee on Nominations shall secure the endorsement of the Board of Stewardship prior to placing a name in nomination.
- Term of Office: Four years. No officer of the court shall be elected to serve more than two consecutive terms in any single office.
- Duties:
1. The Treasurer is elected by the General Synod to be the custodian of the funds committed to the General Synod. In performing this function he shall:
 - a. Provide general oversight of General Synod's financial operations.
 - b. Assist the Board of Stewardship in the development and supervision of an annual budget for the General Synod.
 - c. Assist as requested the agencies of the General Synod in financial matters.
 - d. Promote the work of the General Synod as opportunity and time permit.
 2. To serve as an ex-officio member of the Executive Board of Synod.
 3. To serve as ex-officio member of the Board of Stewardship.
 4. To serve as ex-officio member of Investment Committee.

ARCHIVIST
(Revised, Synod 2012)

- Manner of Selection: The Archivist shall be nominated to the General Synod by the Committee on Nominations and shall be elected by the General Synod.
- Term of Office: Four years. No officer of the court shall be elected to serve more than two consecutive terms in any single office.
- Duties:
1. To work with congregations of the denomination to collect historical materials of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church and to send such materials to the archives of the Presbyterian Historical Society, Montreat College, as appropriate.
 2. To promote the availability of archived materials for research.

3. To report to the Executive Board of General Synod and to serve as an advisory member of that Board.

PARLIAMENTARIAN
(Revised, Synod 2012)

Manner of Selection: The Parliamentarian shall be nominated to the General Synod by the Committee on Nominations and shall be elected by the General Synod.

Term of Office: Four years. No officer of the court shall be elected to serve more than two consecutive terms in any single office.

Duties:

1. At the meeting of the General Synod, the Parliamentarian shall call attention to procedures which are not in accord with the Rules of Order of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church. On request, he shall advise the Moderator on procedural matters. However, all questions of order shall be decided by the Moderator, subject only to the appeal of two or more members of the Court.
2. When necessary, to assist congregations and presbyteries in the resolution of questions regarding parliamentary procedure.
3. To serve as an advisory member of the Executive Board of Synod.

BOARDS OF THE GENERAL SYNOD
ASSOCIATE REFORMED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The Form of Government, 13.1 defines a board as “a body appointed and empowered by a court of the Church to take management of certain specified duties in advancing the mission of the Church.”

The boards appointed by the General Synod shall perform the work entrusted to them without particular instructions, but shall follow the general instructions of the Court; additionally, all boards shall be guided by the following guidelines and limitations as expressed in the Form of Government 13:

1. Purpose. A board is a body appointed and empowered by a Court of the Church to take management of certain specified duties in advancing the mission of the Church.
2. Authority and Responsibility.
 - a. A board shall perform special work entrusted to it without particular instructions from the appointing court but shall follow the general instructions of the court.
 - b. A board shall be empowered to study, initiate, and administer programs and funds, and hold title to properties within its specific area of responsibility.
 - c. A board shall make an annual report to the appointing court, giving full statement of all business transacted and actions taken during the year.
 - d. Any action of a board may be approved, amended, or set aside by the appointing court.
 - e. A board shall keep full and accurate records of its proceedings in permanent form which shall be available for review and inspection as required by the appointing court.
3. Composition and Organization.
 - a. Members of a board shall be appointed and their terms of membership shall be fixed by the appointing court.
 - b. A board shall elect its own officers and, subject to the approval of the appointing court, shall adopt a constitution and by laws.
 - c. A board may incorporate; however, the provisions of its charter and bylaws must always be in accordance with the Form of Government of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church.
4. Any newly elected member of any board or committee or any newly appointed administrative or teaching employee of any board shall have given satisfactory evidence of his belief in and adherence to the basic doctrines of evangelical Christianity.” (1992 Synod)

The following definition of evangelical was adopted by the 1976 General Synod: “The word ‘evangelical’ comes from a Greek root meaning ‘good news’ and it refers to the Gospel of Jesus Christ. In a broad sense, evangelicals are people who believe that the Bible is God’s inspired Word and that an individual can become a Christian only by accepting Jesus Christ as his personal Savior. Evangelicals believe:

1. The Bible alone, being God-breathed, is the Word of God Written, infallible in all that it teaches, and inerrant in the original manuscripts.
2. That there is one God, eternally existent in three persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
3. In the Deity of the Lord Jesus Christ, in His Virgin Birth, in His sinless life, in His miracles, in His vicarious and atoning death through the shed blood, in His bodily resurrection, in His ascension to the right hand of the Father, and in His personal return in power and glory.
4. That for the salvation of lost and sinful man, regeneration by the Holy Spirit is absolutely essential.
5. In the present ministry of the Holy Spirit by whose indwelling the Christian is enabled to live a godly life.
6. In the resurrection of both the saved and the lost; they that are saved unto the resurrection of life and they that are lost unto the resurrection of damnation.
7. In the spiritual unity of believers in the Lord Jesus Christ.”

In the area of financial management, boards and their agencies shall not engage in the solicitation of funds within the denomination without the specific prior approval of the General Synod. (2006 Synod)

The General Synod has appointed the following boards to carry out specific missions of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church:

Executive Board of the General Synod
Board of Benefits
Board of Trustees of Bonclarken Conference Center
Christian Education Ministries of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church
Board of Trustees of William H. Dunlap Orphanage, Inc.
Board of Trustees of Erskine College
Board of Outreach North America
Board of Stewardship
World Witness, The Board of Foreign Missions

The General Synod or the Executive Board of Synod acting on behalf of Synod, may, from time to time, create or authorize the creation of separate legal entities to carry out the particular duties of an appointed board. The provisions of the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of such legal entities must always be in accordance with the Form of Government of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church. Unless directed otherwise these legal entities shall be accountable to the General Synod through the Executive Board of the General Synod. (2004 Synod)

Principles for Organization of Boards

[Adopted 2004 and Approved for Inclusion in Manual of Authorities and Duties 2005]

A particular charge of the Committee on Nominations is to nominate to the General Synod those persons best qualified to serve on Synod's boards and committees. Sessions are encouraged to present the opportunities for service to challenge members of the congregation to seek opportunities for service in accordance with their spiritual gifts.

1. Boards are entrusted by General Synod to provide oversight of the ministries assigned to the board and shall develop policies and procedures to assure accountability at all levels of the ministry assigned to the board.
2. Boards are accountable to the General Synod to ensure that their board is providing oversight of its particular mission on behalf of General Synod. Board chairmen should serve as primary contact in relating to General Synod.
3. Board chairmen are to approve reimbursements to directors.
4. Executive sessions of board meetings should include the Moderator, Moderator-Elect, and Executive Director of Central Services unless the board determines otherwise for a particular reason.
5. Presbytery representatives are responsible for conveying the input of their sending presbytery to the board, and for reporting regularly to their presbytery regarding the work of the board and its actions.
6. Presbyteries are urged to elect committee chairmen who have a genuine desire to serve Presbytery and Synod in their respective roles.
7. Where possible, presbytery representation should be divided equally between teaching and ruling elders.

Responsibilities of Board Chairmen and Role of Executive Committees

(2004 Synod)

A description of the authorities and duties of those boards appointed by General Synod follows. (NOTE: For bylaws, constitutions, and policy books/manuals which are not included herein, please contact the appropriate board or agency.)

EXECUTIVE BOARD OF THE GENERAL SYNOD

- Membership: Ex-officio: Immediate Past Three Moderators, Moderator, Vice Moderator, Moderator-Elect, Vice Moderator-Elect, Principal Clerk, Treasurer of Synod, Board of Stewardship Chairman. (2012 Synod)
- Presbytery Representatives: One elected elder from each presbytery, alternating teaching and ruling elders or in the event of the absence of the elected elder, a teaching or ruling elder elected by the presbytery to serve in his absence. [NOTE: The “substitute” should be elected on an annual basis for service in the church year (July —June 30) and should hold the same office as the elected elder.] (1998 Synod)
- Advisory: Administrative Officer, Executive Director of Central Services, Archivist, Parliamentarian, President of ARP Women’s Ministries, Chairmen of the Boards of the General Synod, Chairman of the Committee on Revisions (Synod 2016) and chief administrative officers of those boards. These chairmen and chief administrative officers shall be invited to attend all meetings and shall be expected to attend when specifically requested by the Moderator. (Synod 2004)
- Terms of Service: Terms of Service are determined by the office to which elected. Presbytery representatives shall be elected for four (4) year terms. In the event an ex-officio member should change his denominational affiliation, his term of service shall cease at the time of such change. In the event that a presbytery representative changes his affiliation from the presbytery from which he was elected, his term of service shall cease and the teaching or ruling elder elected by the presbytery to serve in the absence of the presbytery representative shall serve until a successor is elected at the next meeting of the General Synod. (1998 Synod)
- Stated Meetings: Two (2) meetings shall be scheduled on an annual basis. The Fall meeting may be cancelled at the discretion of the Moderator, or may be held as a telephone conference call. Other meetings may be held at the call of the Moderator or four (4) voting members, provided, however, that members shall be advised of a called meeting so as to receive notice of such meeting at least five (5) days before such meeting. At any such called meeting at which every member shall be present, business other than that listed in the call may also be transacted. (2012 Synod)
- Organization: Officers: Chairman (Moderator); Vice Chairman (Vice Moderator); Secretary (Principal Clerk).
- Committees:
- Committee on Administration: Membership shall be Principal Clerk (Chairman), Moderator, Vice Moderator, Moderator-Elect, Treasurer, Chairman of Board of Benefits, Chairman of the Board of Stewardship. Executive Director of Central Services serves as advisory. Regular scheduled meetings are held in conjunction with each meeting of Executive Board. Committee on Administration Oversees Central Services and is responsible for preparing budgets for Central Services, Center Facility and the Executive Board. Central Services secures and maintains a dossier on all theological students and ministers. Central Services also maintains a list of students who are available for work and a list of ministers who are interested in a change of work. (2012 Synod)
- Committee to Plan Meeting of Synod
Committee to Plan Yearly Emphases

Administrative Officer: Executive Director of Central Services.

Authority:

The Executive Board of the General Synod is the agency empowered to carry out the work of the General Synod in the interim period between meetings of Synod, and is the agency responsible for presenting to the General Synod organizational and administrative changes to enhance the capability of the General Synod to fulfill its primary responsibility (Form of Government, 13.2.B). Further, it is responsible for the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Center, the Office of Central Services, and the promotional work of the General Synod. When the Executive Board acts in an emergency case on behalf of Synod, only those eligible to vote at the meeting of Synod shall be entitled to vote. The Executive Board has no authority to over-ride or act on any Presbytery matters. (1995 Synod)

The corporate powers, business, property, and affairs of the Corporation shall be entrusted to and managed by the membership of the Executive Board when constituted as General Synod of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church, Inc. (2004 Synod)

In the exercise of its authority the Executive Board shall comply with The Standards of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church, and its policies and programs shall be consistent with the purpose of the General Synod.

Duties:

1. To act on behalf of Synod in emergency situations.
2. To implement all directives of Synod not specifically assigned to another board or committee.
3. To coordinate the total work of the General Synod.
4. To supervise the Office of Central Services and, through it, to provide administrative support for all boards, committees, and operating agencies of the General Synod.
5. To promote the work of General Synod.
6. To plan and arrange for the annual meeting of the General Synod and to encourage attendance with a pastoral letter from the Incoming Moderator to those churches that did not send a Ruling Elder to the previous meeting. This letter should be sent no later than January each year. (2002 Synod)
7. To approve a denominational theme and monthly emphases for the year of service of the incoming Moderator (July-June) according to the "Guidelines for the Committee To Plan Yearly Emphases." (2004 Synod)
8. To prepare and recommend to Synod each year a budget for the work of the Executive Board.
9. To make an annual report to Synod.
10. To appoint such administrators as are necessary for the work of the Executive Board.
11. In an advisory capacity to:
 - a. Provide continuity in the leadership of the denomination.
 - b. Suggest denominational policies, goals, and organizational structure. (1995 Synod)
 - c. Facilitate the implementation of Synod's goals and directives by the boards and agencies of the General Synod.
 - d. Promote harmonious relations between boards and agencies of the General Synod.
12. To represent the General Synod in the process of selecting and employing the Chaplain of Erskine College by appointing two (2) former moderators present-

- ly serving on the Executive Board to serve on the Committee to Employ The Chaplain. (1993 Synod)
- 13. When constituted as the board of the Corporation, to manage the business and affairs of the Corporation. (2004 Synod)
- 14. To determine the suitability of any translations of the Standards previously authorized by the General Synod and prepared in accordance with the procedures approved by the General Synod. (2004 Synod)

Guidelines for Committee to Plan Yearly Emphases (2006 Synod)

On an annual basis, the Moderator-Elect is extended the privilege of developing a theme for emphasis during his term of service as Moderator. The theme will be used as the basis for worship at the meeting of the General Synod, and monthly emphases shall be prepared for the months of July through June of the following year. The theme shall be consistent with the "Theme for the Decade" as approved by the General Synod.

1. The membership of the annual special committee to plan and implement the emphases shall include appointees from each presbytery at least once in every two years and a representative appointed by the President of ARP Women's Ministries.
2. The Committee will be appointed by the Moderator-Elect, who will serve as Chairman.
3. Planning will be "zero based;" that is, at no point will it be assumed that the last year's planning will become the model for the next year's.
4. Planning will be done so that the monthly emphases grow, not from the subdivision of Synod's agencies, but from the consideration of the annual theme and the needs of the congregations.
5. The Committee will be charged with the responsibility for coordinating the emphases, drawing together the entire program for the year, and seeing that individual monthly emphases are effectively presented throughout the denomination.
6. The Committee will be provided with adequate budget support to finance the presentation of these emphases.
7. The Committee shall work closely with Synod's agencies in promoting the monthly emphases; that is, at any point that the emphasis parallels the responsibilities of one of Synod's agencies, the Committee will work closely with that agency in its promotion. Wherever applicable, members of Synod's boards and committees should be encouraged to present the emphases in their own geographical areas.
8. The Committee is encouraged to seek reports from the congregations on how the monthly emphases are presented and on areas in which they need assistance.

The Committee to Plan Synod's Emphases shall submit a report to the Executive Board for review. The emphases shall be submitted with the report of the Executive Board to the General Synod.

As the primary legal entity of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church, the Corporation shall hold title to various real or other properties that serve the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church, excluding properties of congregations and presbyteries and individual boards and agencies of the Court unless requested by individual boards and agencies. In the event of a division of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church, the property held by the Corporation shall be held for the use and benefit of and shall be the property of the major governing body of that branch which shall retain the name the “Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church.” The use of such property shall be in furtherance of the doctrine of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church as set forth in the “Standards of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church.”

ARTICLE II

The Board

Section 1. GENERAL STRUCTURE OF THE BOARD. The corporate powers, business, property, and affairs of the Corporation shall be entrusted to and managed by the Board of Directors of the Corporation (the “Board”). Members of the Board need not be residents of the State of South Carolina. The members of the Board shall be those five persons who are serving as the Court's Moderator, Moderator-Elect, Principal Clerk, Treasurer, and the Chairman of the Board of Stewardship. The term of each board member shall be one (1) year.

The Executive Director of Central Services shall serve as an advisory member of the Board.

Section 2. MEETINGS.

- (a) The Board shall meet at least one (1) time annually which meeting may take place via telephonic conference call or other similar arrangement wherein each Member of the Board can hear and be heard simultaneously with other Members;
- (b) The Board shall meet on the call of the chairman or secretary or any two voting members; and
- (c) Members shall be advised of a called meeting by telephone, mail, or electronic communication so as to receive notice of such meeting at least five (5) days before such meeting but such notice may be waived by any member. At any called meeting at which every member shall be present, business other than that listed in the call may also be transacted. Telephonic conference call meetings may be held when necessary; however, an affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the Board will be required for approval of action in a telephone meeting.

Section 3. QUORUM.

- (a) A majority of the voting members of the Board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of the business of the Corporation; and
- (b) If at any meeting there is less than a quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time without notice in order to secure a quorum.

Section 4. COMPENSATION. Members of the Board shall not receive compensation for their attendance at the meetings, but shall be reimbursed for normal and reasonable travel expenses.

ARTICLE III Officers

Section 1. OFFICERS. The officers of the Corporation (the "Officers") shall be a Chairman who shall be the Moderator of the Court; a Vice Chairman, who shall be the Moderator-Elect of the Court; a Secretary, who shall be the Principal Clerk of the Court; and a Treasurer, who shall be the Treasurer of the Court.

Section 2. CHAIRMAN. The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Board and perform such other duties as are usually incumbent upon and incident to this position and such other duties as may be assigned to the Chairman from time to time by the Board. In the absence of the Chairman, the Vice Chairman shall perform the duties of the Chairman.

Section 3. BONDS. The Board may require some or all officers and employees having control of or access to monies or securities of the Corporation to give bond to the Corporation with corporate surety conditioned upon the honesty of such officers and employees, in such amounts as may be deemed necessary and containing such other conditions as may be required from time to time by the Board. The premium of such surety bonds shall be paid by the Corporation.

Section 4. ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICER. The Board may employ or appoint an administrative officer. Such administrative officer shall not be a voting member of the Board and his duties shall be the duties usual to such positions and such other and further duties as may be prescribed from time to time by the Board.

ARTICLE IV Committees

The Chairman shall have the power to appoint such committees as may be necessary for the efficient conduct of the business of the Board; provided that the Board shall at all times have power to modify, add to, take from or otherwise change and alter the duties and functions of any such committee.

ARTICLE V

Miscellaneous

Section 1. FISCAL YEAR. The fiscal year of the corporation shall begin on the first day of January and terminate on the 31st day of December of each year.

Section 2. CONVEYANCES. All conveyances of real property, releases of mortgages, liens and judgments, and all other instruments affecting real property, made by the Corporation or required by law to be a matter of record, shall be executed by the Chairman or Vice Chairman and attested by the Secretary or Treasurer.

Section 3. CORPORATE SEAL. The Corporation shall have and use a corporate seal. Said seal shall have inscribed thereon "General Synod of The Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church, Corporate Seal 1913, South Carolina." Changes to such seal shall be made only by Board Resolution.

Section 4. ANNUAL REPORT. All actions of the Board shall be included in the annual report of the Executive Board of Synod to the Court.

ARTICLE VI

Amendments

Section 1. AMENDMENTS TO CHARTER. The Charter of the Corporation may be amended in accordance with the laws of the State of South Carolina by the affirmative vote of a two-thirds vote of the Board. No amendment to this Charter in conflict with any standing rule or action of the Court shall be adopted and all amendments must be reported to the Court for review.

Section 2. AMENDMENTS TO BYLAWS. These bylaws may be amended by the affirmative vote of a majority of the voting members present at a meeting of the Executive Board of the General Synod. No amendment to these bylaws in conflict with any standing rule or action of the Court shall be adopted and all amendments must be reported to the Court for review.

POSITION DESCRIPTION FOR EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL SERVICES

Title: Executive Director of Central Services

Employing Agency: Executive Board of the General Synod

The Executive director of Central Services is responsible for the overall supervision and management of the ministries of Central Services at the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Center in Greenville, South Carolina.

The ministries of Central Services incorporate Administrative Support Services, Finances, Human resources and Benefits, and Publications and Promotion. [Note: All references to “agencies” refer to the boards, committees, commission and programs established by the General Synod to carry out the mission of the Church.]

- Finance: Central Services will expand its Finance Department to provide finance and accounting support to the agencies of the denomination.
- Human Resources and Benefits: Central Services will ultimately have responsibility for supporting the agencies in all personnel matters, in developing and maintaining personnel policies, and in administration of the benefit programs of the denomination.
- Publications: Central Services expects to provide publications support for the agencies including the composition, layout and printing of publications and support of the denominational magazine, The Associate Reformed Presbyterian, as requested.
- Administration: Central Services will offer administrative support for the agencies of the denomination and, in addition, will provide support services for the assistance of the officers of General Synod in the pursuit of their responsibilities. The Executive Director of Central Services may serve as the administrative officer of support agencies (Board of Benefits, Board of Stewardship, Trustees of William H. Dunlap Orphanage, Inc.) as they may elect.

Duties:

1. To be responsible for the implementation of the fully developed Central Services as approved by General Synod. This implementation is to be accomplished through:
 - Development and oversight of the Central Services staff
 - Discreet and judicious management of information
 - Effective leadership of people and management of their tasks
 - Financial management and reporting
 - Discharge of the duties assigned by the Executive Board of Synod (2007 Synod)
2. To serve as a consultant to and advisory member of General Synod’s boards and committees in the process of coordinating their work and assisting them in the tasks assigned to them by the General Synod; and including the responsibility of advising and encouraging agency directors in their responsibilities;
3. To assist and advise any search committee in the hiring of new or replacement administrators;
4. To maintain a close relationship and communication with the Moderator and Moderator-Elect to provide information to enable them to fulfill their responsibilities and to make them aware of the workings of the boards and committees of the General Synod;
5. To continually evaluate the effectiveness of the organization structure and administrative practices of the General Synod and report his findings to the Executive Board. (2008 Synod)

POSITION DESCRIPTION FOR THE EDITOR OF THE ASSOCIATE REFORMED PRESBYTERIAN

Qualifications:

The Committee on Administration shall appoint (with input from the Executive Director of Central Services) the editor shall be chosen with regard to Christian commitment and demonstrated abilities.

The editor will be, or be willing to become, a member of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church, be active in a congregation of the denomination, and be in agreement with a Reformed Biblical World and Life View.

The editor is responsible for all functional aspects of the magazine's production, including, but not limited to, writing, editing, photography, graphics and management of personnel and business relationships. Computer skills relative to the position are essential.

The editor must be a skilled strategic thinker/planner, able to map out the magazine's year, target special events and issues, and in general present them to the church in an enthusiastic and appealing manner.

The editor, being one of the church's leaders, must not only be able to work well alone, as a self-starter, but also to work in harmony with other members of the leadership team.

The editor's position is one of high visibility and consequently must have well-developed inter-personal skills, a winsome personality, and congenial disposition. The editor must be articulate, comfortable in making public presentations, addressing meetings, and developing relationships beyond the bounds of the office environment.

Duties:

1. To communicate the Gospel of Jesus Christ, to encourage the application of the truths of Scripture to life, and to build up the church.
2. To publish six times per year, The Associate Reformed Presbyterian.
3. To make appropriate material available on a website.
4. To have editorial control of the content and form of the magazine and website in accordance with the policies of the Executive Board and with guidance from the Executive Director of Central Services.
5. To exercise oversight of advertising.
6. To effectively execute the daily operations of The Associate Reformed Presbyterian office.
7. To hire, supervise, and dismiss employees.
8. To manage the financial matters of The Associate Reformed Presbyterian.
9. Through the Magazine and website, to report the news of the denomination, and to promote the vision and work of the Synod and its agencies, working cooperatively with the agencies of the denomination.

- Authority: Christian Education Ministries of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church is the agency of the General Synod which shall plan, organize, administer, and promote the teaching ministry of the Church, except for that higher education provided by Erskine College and Erskine Theological Seminary; and shall carry out its responsibilities in relation to the presbyteries and congregations in cooperation with the other boards and committees of the General Synod.
- In the exercise of its authority the Board shall comply with The Standards of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church, and its policies and programs shall be consistent with the purpose of the General Synod.
- Duties: (2008 Synod)
1. To employ such administrators and staff as are necessary for the work of the Board and to supervise the execution of Board policies.
 2. To prepare, and recommend to Synod each year, a budget to do the work of the Board and to oversee the use of financial resources designated by the Synod for these purposes.
 3. To initiate, develop, promote, coordinate, and evaluate comprehensive programs of Christian education for Synod, presbyteries, and congregations that will help to equip the saints for their ministries in the world. (Ephesians 4:12)
 4. To provide and recommend curriculum and other materials necessary for the teaching ministry (i.e., Sunday School, catechism training, mid-week programming, Vacation Bible School, etc.).

5. To inform Synod, presbyteries, pastors, sessions, DCE's, superintendents, and chairmen of local Christian education committees concerning trends and developments in Christian education.
6. To develop and supervise a full program of camps, conferences, retreats, etc., and, when requested, to assist presbyteries in these areas.
7. To cooperate with other Christian denominations in carrying out all phases of the teaching ministry.
8. To help local congregations to plan, promote, and execute the best possible teaching ministry by:
 - a. Providing and promoting opportunities for leadership training;
 - b. Developing and promoting Christian education activities for congregations;
 - c. Assisting, when requested, in the development of congregational libraries.
 - d. Making available relevant media resources for loan or purchase from the office of Christian Education Ministries.
9. To promote job opportunities for those who may be called into the ministry of Christian education.
10. To collect annual reports from congregations on teaching ministries and to make summary reports available to the General Synod and to presbytery committees on the status of Christian education ministries in the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church.
11. To make an annual report to the General Synod.

POSITION DESCRIPTION FOR EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION MINISTRIES

General:

The Executive Director of Christian Education Ministries holds an important position in the life and ministry of the denomination. The executive director is to be a committed Christian who finds joy in serving Christ through his/her calling. The perspective for the Executive Director of Christian Education Ministries must come from the Bible, "the written work of God, the only perfect rule of faith and practice (Form of Government 4.5.A.3) and expressed in The Standards of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church. The executive director shall "give satisfactory evidence of his/her belief in and adherence to the basic doctrines of evangelical Christianity." (Manual of Authorities and Duties, Page 11, Item 4). The executive director shall be (or become) a member of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church. There shall be adequate compensation and benefits in the terms of employment.

The executive director shall have the freedom, within the guidelines established in the Policy Manual and Presbyterian polity, to carry out the mission entrusted to the Office of Christian Education Ministries. Likewise, the Board will support and encourage the executive director in the accomplishment of these duties and tasks.

Qualifications:

The executive director must have graduate training in Christian Education and the minimum of a Masters Degree. Both the field of study and the school must be approved by the Board. In addition, the executive director must:

1. Have a sense of vocation and commitment to Christ with a deep conviction of God's will.
2. Be able to maintain a good relationship with the agencies, presbyteries and congregations of our denomination. The added qualities of humility, love for people, cooperativeness, patience, and self-control are also desirable.
3. Be willing to take advantage of short-term courses and other opportunities for continuing education.
4. Be able to function in several areas of Christian Education — being flexible and capable to adapt to varying aspects of the position.
5. Demonstrate leadership qualities, enthusiasm and display a pleasing personality and appearance.
6. Have the ability to discover, interpret and promote new methods, which may be beneficial to the denomination.
7. Be open to the implementation of new programs that the Board may adopt.

Duties.

The duties of the executive director shall include:

1. Promoting the total teaching ministry of the denomination.
2. Bringing to the Board informative and innovative ideas that will enable the Board to explore new directions for its work.
3. Communicating to the presbyteries and congregations the challenges, needs, programs, plans, resources, and directions of the work of Christian education. These and other significant Christian education issues may be conveyed through the Christian Education Ministries newsletter, The ARP magazine and other media.
4. At the request of congregations and/or presbyteries, serving as a consultant to evaluate their programs and make projections for the future. Be available to lead workshops, seminars, retreats.
5. Exploring alternative funding sources.
6. Serving as an advisory member of the Board and all standing committees of the Board.

Responsibilities:

The executive director shall be responsible for:

1. The general oversight and operation of the office, employees, programs and equipment of the office.
2. Submitting a written report of activities, accomplishments and recommendations at each of the stated meetings of the Board.
3. The supervision of employees authorized by the Board, evaluating and providing an annual written report of their performance to the Board through the Administrative Committee at the February meeting.
4. Implementing and operating within the annual budget. Reviewing the monthly budget summaries and recommending any revisions to the approved budget at the September meeting of the Board.
5. Preparing a proposed annual budget (with the exception of salary items) for the operation of Board activities and presenting it to the Administrative Committee for consideration at the February meeting of the Board.
6. Representing the Board at conferences and seminars sponsored by the Board. Providing on-site supervision and participation at conferences sponsored by the Board.
7. Reviewing programs and speakers for youth camps, conferences, retreats, etc. sponsored by the Board prior to presentation to the Board for approval.
8. Working with the chairman in making arrangements for hosting the fall and winter meetings of the Board. Assisting the chairman in conducting Board meetings. These meetings will generally be held at Bonclarken.
9. Carrying out the policies, communicating the purposes, goals and on-going business of the Board and its committees.
10. Serving as an advisory member of the Board and all its committees.

Authorities:

The executive director shall have authority to:

1. Represent the Board in developing mutual programs of ministry by serving on various boards or committees as directed by the Board and/or Synod's Executive Board.
2. Approve the use of vacation and sick leave by employees of the office. Authorize appropriate compensatory time as appropriate in the ARP Center Employee Handbook for employees involved in activities under the jurisdiction of the Office of Christian Education Ministries.
3. Provide advice and consent to the Board regarding all persons recommended to the Board for employment.
4. Hire and terminate hourly employees and within the provisions of the approved budget.
5. Approve travel and/or training requests from employees as authorized by the Board and within the provisions of the approved budget.
6. Recommend to the Board adjustments in the amount of office space and/or types of equipment needed for effective operation.

BYLAWS FOR THE WILLIAM H. DUNLAP ORPHANAGE, INC.

As Amended by 1999 General Synod

Preamble

These bylaws of the William H. Dunlap Orphanage, Incorporated, are successor to the "Constitution and bylaws of the William H. Dunlap Orphanage, Inc." as last approved by the 1977 General Synod of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church.

Article I—Name

1. The legal name of this corporation shall be the William H. Dunlap Orphanage, Incorporated. However for general reference and stationary letterheads, the name "William H. Dunlap Fund" may be used.
2. The registered office of this Corporation shall be P.O. Box 45, Fayetteville, TN 37334.
3. Administrative Office for the William H. Dunlap Fund will be located at the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Center, 918 South Pleasantburg Drive, Greenville, Greenville County, South Carolina 29601.

Article II—Incorporation

This Corporation is incorporated under the corporate laws of the State of Tennessee as a not-for-profit corporation and operates within the purposes and objectives of the Charter of Incorporation as recorded November 12, 1919, in Corporation Record Book Misc. A, page 70, in Nashville, Tennessee, and as may hereafter be amended.

Article III—Purpose

The object of this Corporation is to provide care, support, maintenance, and education of orphaned, or fatherless, or helpless, or needy children, and to support projects related to such children.

Article IV—Board of Trustees

1. The corporation shall be governed by a Board of Trustees consisting of twelve members elected by the General Synod, with one person selected by the ARP Women's Ministries and with each presbytery represented by a person selected by the presbytery. The Moderator of Synod, Moderator-Elect of Synod, the Treasurer (if not an elected member of the Board) and the Administrative Officer shall serve as non-voting advisory members.
2. The term of office of the appointed members shall be six years, with terms of service normally beginning July 1 of the year appointed. The term of office of advisory members shall coincide with the terms of office to which elected or appointed. Members who change their denominational affiliation shall be considered to have resigned, but may be asked by the Board of Trustees to fulfill their term of service. In the event that a member shall move, he/she shall continue to serve and the presbytery from which said member moved shall fill the next available position. Furthermore, replacements are to come from the same presbytery as retirements.
3. The Board may employ an administrative officer or utilize the services of the Director of Central Services as the administrative officer. Such administrative officer shall not be a voting member of the board and his duties shall be the duties usual to such positions and such other and further duties as may be prescribed from time to time by the board.
4. The Board of Trustees shall not receive compensation for their attendance at the meetings of the board, but will be reimbursed for normal and reasonable travel expenses. Compensation paid to the administrative officer shall be within the limitations of a budget approved by the General Synod.

Article V—Officers

1. The officers of this Corporation shall consist of a Chairman, Vice Chairman, Secretary, and Treasurer. Officers shall be elected at the scheduled meeting prior to the annual meeting of the General Synod.
2. Chairman: The chairman of the Board of Trustees shall be elected by a majority of the members of said Board from its own membership. He shall be eligible for re-election. He shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Trustees and shall perform the usual duties incident to his office and such other duties as may be required of him by the above-mentioned Board. He shall be responsible for the preparation of the annual report of the Board of Trustees to the General Synod of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church.

3. Vice Chairman: The Vice Chairman shall be elected by the same rules that apply to the election of the Chairman and will assume the duties of the Chairman in the event of his absence or disability. He will perform any other duties delegated by the Chairman or by the Board of Trustees.

4. Secretary: The Secretary shall be elected by the same rules that apply to the election of the Chairman and shall give notice to all the meetings of the Board of Trustees, and shall record the minutes of the same.

5. Treasurer: The Treasurer shall be elected by the same rules that apply to the election of the Chairman, but membership shall not be a prerequisite for election. Compensation for the Treasurer shall be fixed by the Board of Trustees. The Treasurer shall:

- a. Keep all the records and books of the Corporation and shall keep a strict account of all money received and disbursed.
- b. Pay out money as directed by the Board of Trustees.
- c. Make a financial report to the Board of Trustees at each meeting.
- d. Execute bond in such sum as the Board of Trustees may require, the premium to be paid by the Corporation.
- e. Arrange for an Auditor or Public Accountant to make an annual examination of the books of the Treasurer and submit a report to the Chairman of the Board of Trustees.
- f. At the close of his term, deliver to his successor all books, records, and papers pertaining to his office.

Article VI—Meetings

1. Regular stated meetings of the Board of Trustees of this Corporation shall be at the Home Office or at such other places as designated by the Board.

2. Special meetings may be called by the Chairman of the Board of Trustees, upon the request of two (2) members of the Board of Trustees.

3. All meetings shall be opened and closed with prayer.

Article VII—Quorum

Seven (7) members of the voting members of the Board of Trustees shall constitute a quorum, one of whom shall be an officer, effective July 1, 1989.

Article VIII—Amendments

These bylaws may be amended by a two-thirds vote of those present, provided that a quorum is present; and further provided, the amendment must have been submitted in writing at the previous meeting of the Board of Trustees. However, such amendment will not become effective until after approval by the General Synod of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church at the next regular meeting of this body.

Article IX—Executive Committee

The Executive Committee shall be composed of the officers of the Corporation plus the administrative officer who shall serve as an advisory member. Three (3) officers shall constitute a quorum. This committee shall, during the intervals between the meetings of the Board, possess and may exercise all of the powers of the full board in the management of the corporation, except as to such matters which the board has by resolution expressly reserved to it. Additionally, the Executive Committee shall prepare the annual report to the General Synod. The Executive Committee shall keep full and fair records of its proceedings and actions and shall report them to the next succeeding meeting of the Board, who may alter or revise such actions, provided that no rights of third persons shall be affected by any such revision or alteration.

POLICY GUIDELINES FOR THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF WILLIAM H. DUNLAP ORPHANAGE
As Amended to November 2002

Foreword

The purpose of each board and agency of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian denomination is to carry out a specific ministry of the church. The ministry committed to the Board of Trustees of William H. Dunlap Orphanage ("Dunlap") is "to provide care, support, maintenance, and education of orphaned, or fatherless, or helpless, or needy children, and to support projects related to such children."

Our ministry then is to those made vulnerable by unfortunate circumstances and whose vulnerability is compounded by their youth. Our purpose is to assist those providing all the following:

- basic physical necessities;
- spiritual, mental and emotional well-being; and
- assistance toward greater self-reliance.

Concerning Individuals In Need Of Assistance

The most vulnerable of human conditions is that of one who has no advocate (understood biblically as "one who comes alongside to help"). The death or inability of one or both of a child's natural advocates (i.e. parents) frequently sets the child at a distinct disadvantage in gaining those things necessary for survival and advancement.

It is the policy of Dunlap to consider in its deliberations the various factors contributing to a child's vulnerability. These factors would include such things as:

- (a) The degree to which unfruitful, unnecessary, unhealthy or dangerous circumstances attend the child's situation.
- (b) The amount of effort necessary to lift the child above these circumstances.
- (c) The degree to which the child can provide for his own basic necessities.
- (d) The amount of assistance coming from other sources, etc.

In short, this Board attempts first to determine the degree of disadvantage (or the vulnerability) in which a child is placed by the loss of (a) parent(s), or by the inability of (a) parent(s) to provide for the child's needs.

Secondly, this Board considers the category of need. These are, by priority:

- (a) Basic necessities of life.
- (b) Spiritual, mental, emotional necessities.
- (c) Educational necessities.

First priority is given to the most vulnerable individuals whose needs are basic to survival.

Policy Guidelines

The primary purpose of Dunlap is to provide (and/or support homes which provide) comprehensive physical, educational, emotional, and spiritual care in a Christian environment for a child or children when the parent or parents are unable to do so. Dunlap shall also seek to provide scholarship assistance to qualified, financially needy, undergraduate students who have been deprived of one or both parents, either by death, desertion, or other condition which prevents such student from having normal parental care.

The following shall be used to guide Dunlap as it seeks to assist the church in fulfilling its biblical challenge of ministry to children:

- a. Dunlap, through the General Synod, its presbyteries, and congregations, shall seek to identify existing residential care programs within the United States or Canada which might need financial assistance and which are providing total care of children in a Christian environment. Financial assistance (grants) shall be limited to "exempt organizations," as defined in the revenue codes of the United States or Canada, that are providing comprehensive physical, educational, emotional, and spiritual care in a Christian environment. Grants shall be made only to those projects/ organizations that, in the Board's judgment, have a financial likelihood of success. Except as might be approved for those homes with which Dunlap has formulated a formal relationship, funding for such projects shall not exceed five years and shall be on a declining basis.

- b. Dunlap shall seek to work cooperatively with World Witness and the Synods of Mexico and Pakistan to establish William H. Dunlap Homes for orphans.
- c. Dunlap shall be open to ministry opportunities in areas of the world outside Mexico and Pakistan where we might work cooperatively with other denominations and/or non-profit organizations to provide total care for children. Except for those occasions where Dunlap might choose to approve a one-year "exploratory" ministry, non-profit organizations must be recognized as tax-exempt under the revenue codes of the United States or Canada.
- d. Dunlap shall be open to the development of new joint ministry efforts with other boards of the General Synod to fulfill the purpose of Dunlap. Such joint efforts shall be governed by an agreement approved by the governing boards.
- e. Dunlap shall encourage the participation of children in these homes in activities sponsored by agencies of the General Synod by providing scholarship assistance.
- f. Dunlap shall be open to the establishment of ongoing relationships with a home (or homes) which fulfill all objectives for which William H. Dunlap Orphanage was established. Consideration of such relationships shall be in accordance with the Policy Guidelines for Ongoing Relationships and shall be governed by an agreement approved by the governing boards.
- g. All educational scholarship assistance shall be in accordance with scholarship programs established by Dunlap.
- h. Recognizing that there may be occasions where individual Associate Reformed Presbyterian members and/or churches may become aware of unique ministry opportunities which fall within its purpose, Dunlap may, with the unanimous consent of Trustees present and voting, approve a one-time grant without the requirement of a formal proposal.

Definitions

Care: Attention to the needs of another with the aim of providing that which is wanting.

Support: Provision of the basis for existence or promotion of the interest or cause of someone.

Maintenance: Perseverance in the effort put forward in one's behalf.

Education: Instruction intended to enhance one's spiritual, mental, and moral development.

Child: A person from infancy to maturity, but not beyond 25 years of age.

Orphaned: The condition of being deprived of one or both parents, either by death, desertion, or other condition which prevents a person from having access to normal parental care.

Fatherless: The sense of this word comes from an age in which the father was the primary (if not exclusive) provider. This term is understood to indicate the loss of the primary provider, father or mother.

Helpless/Needy: These criteria are taken together because both describe a condition of vulnerability. A helpless person is one with no advocate. A needy person is one whose physical and developmental needs are met either not at all or inconsistently.

Concerning Other Matters

Dunlap will advertise itself at least once annually by means of direct correspondence to pastors or clerks of session of each congregation.

There shall be a comprehensive orientation for all members at the Fall meeting of Dunlap.

Grant applications shall be received for review at the Fall meeting of Dunlap for funding in the subsequent calendar year. With the unanimous consent of Dunlap, grant applications may be considered at other regular or called meetings.

Applicants shall be given a copy of these Policy Guidelines, a copy of General Policy and Instructions for Applicants and a copy of the Dunlap Statement of Biblical Christian Belief.

These Policy Guidelines shall be reviewed on an annual basis.

POLICY GUIDELINES FOR ONGOING RELATIONSHIPS
THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF WILLIAM H. DUNLAP ORPHANAGE

Foreword

The primary purpose of the William H. Dunlap Orphanage (Dunlap) is to provide (and/or support homes which provide) comprehensive physical care; literary, educational, moral and religious training; and emotional and spiritual care in a Christian environment for children when the parent or parents are unable to do so.

In June 1978, the General Synod chose to close its existing home for children and to use assets gathered for that purpose to endow a fund, the earnings of which would be used to support homes providing comprehensive care in the tradition of the William H. Dunlap Orphanage. Since that time, Dunlap, through the General Synod, its presbyteries, and congregations, has identified existing or proposed residential care programs which provide total care of children in a Christian environment. Normally, funding for such programs has been limited to five (5) years and has been on a declining basis.

Recognizing that there are homes which are doing what the William H. Dunlap Home did in the past, the Trustees have adopted these guidelines for establishing relationships which will enhance the involvement of Associate Reformed Presbyterians in the "care, support, maintenance and education of orphaned, or fatherless, or helpless, or needy children."

Guidelines

The following criteria must be met before Dunlap shall consider the establishment of an ongoing relationship:

- a. The primary purpose of the ministry must be to provide a home where children receive comprehensive physical, educational, emotional, and spiritual care in a Christian environment.
- b. The ministry must have been approved for funding under the Policy Guidelines for the Board of Trustees of William H. Dunlap Orphanage and must have been approved for funding for at least three (3) consecutive years.
- c. The ministry must
 - 1) reflect the involvement of an Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church, OR
 - 2) have an Associate Reformed Presbyterian on the board or governing body.
- d. The ministry must be willing to have a member of the Dunlap Board
 - 1) serve as an ex-officio member of their governing board (voice and vote), OR
 - 2) serve as an advisory member of their governing board, but with the right to receive notice and to attend all meetings of the board, including executive session.
- e. Erskine College scholarships shall receive first priority. Once those funds have been set aside, not more than 50% of the remaining funds shall be used for Ongoing Relationships unless otherwise approved by unanimous consent of the Trustees present and voting.

Formal Agreement

At the meeting in which the third-year funding is approved, Dunlap shall determine if there is sufficient interest to pursue an ongoing relationship. If such interest is indicated, the Administrative Officer shall be directed to work with the ministry and ARP entities or individuals currently involved in the ministry to prepare a formal agreement for submission to the ministry board and to Dunlap at its next meeting. The formal agreement shall include:

- a. The proposed funding for the year following the approved agreement.
- b. The type of representation from Dunlap.
- c. The reporting requirements of the ministry. Reporting requirements shall include
 - 1) an annual audit.
 - 2) use of allocated funds.

- 3) statement of how the ministry is maintaining comprehensive physical, educational, emotional, and spiritual care in a Christian environment for the children.
 - 4) statement of any significant changes in the purpose or operation of the ministry.
 - 5) identification of readily, identifiable involvement of Associate Reformed Presbyterian churches or individuals.
- d. Dunlap Responsibilities. Examples of items which might be included:
- 1) Dunlap shall report annually to the General Synod, listing the name, address, and contact person of the ministry.
 - 2) Dunlap shall provide the ministry with a mailing list of Associate Reformed Presbyterian Churches in its geographical area.
- e. Terms for ending relationship.

Dunlap Statement of Biblical Christian Belief

Introduction

We the Board have the great privilege and responsibility of awarding grants to those who care for orphans "in a Christian environment." We are duty bound to ensure that the funds are distributed to homes that understand the title "Christian" in the same traditional, orthodox, and biblical way William H. Dunlap did.

As you apply for grants, please specify that you agree with the "Dunlap Statement of Biblical Christian Belief" below. Also, though not required, we would be encouraged to know the specific steps you are taking to make Christ known to your children. Thank you for the priceless work God is doing through you!

Dunlap Statement of Biblical Christian Belief

We believe in one God, eternally existing in three persons: Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

We believe that the Son, Jesus Christ, was begotten by the Holy Spirit, was born of the Virgin Mary, and is true God and true man.

We believe that the Lord Jesus Christ was crucified and died for our sins as a representative and substitutionary sacrifice, and only those who by His Grace trust in Him alone for salvation are made right with God on the ground of His shed blood.

We believe that the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are the Word of God without error in all that it teaches.

We earnestly desire that every child entrusted to our care would profess faith in the Lord Jesus Christ as his or her personal Lord and Savior, and we will endeavor to make Him known to each one.

REPORT OF THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON CHRISTIAN HIGHER EDUCATION AS ADOPTED BY THE GENERAL SYNOD ASSOCIATE REFORMED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH June 8, 1977

In accordance with action of the General Synod of 1975 and by appointment of the Moderator, the Special Committee on Christian Higher Education submits the following report:

Creation of the Committee

The 1975 Session of the General Synod adopted a recommendation of the Moderator's Committee on Educational Institutions "that a special committee of five (5) be appointed by the Moderator to develop a Philosophy of Christian Higher Education for the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church, including goals and purposes of Erskine."

Membership of the Committee

Following the adjournment of the 1975 Session, the Moderator of Synod, Dr. Randall T. Ruble, appointed the following five persons to the committee:

1. Reverend Roy E. Beckham, D.D., pastor of the Greenville Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church, Greenville, South Carolina.
2. Miss Alice Love, Ph.D., professor of English, Winthrop College, and member of First Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church, Rock Hill, South Carolina.
3. Mr. Hazel Long, elder in the Doraville Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church, Doraville, GA.
4. Reverend Lonnie L. Richardson, pastor of New Covenant Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church, Charlotte, North Carolina.
5. Mr. W. H. Stuart, elder in the Bartow Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church, Bartow, Florida.

The Moderator designated Mr. Stuart to serve as chairman. The Committee elected Dr. Love as vice chairman and Mr. Long as secretary.

The Work of the Committee

Only as the members of the committee have worked together over a period of nearly two years has the committee come to a full understanding of its task.

Convening for the first time on October 11, 1975, the Committee has held eleven meetings, the majority of which required a full day.

Through the cooperation of Mr. E. D. Sloan, Jr., Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Erskine College, and President M. Stanyarne Bell, conferences have been held with a majority of the members of the Board of Trustees, most of the members of the administration, a substantial number of faculty members, and representative members of the student body of Erskine College. Individual members of the committee have conferred with a number of the members of our church and persons experienced in the field of Christian higher education. The committee has had the advantage of a considerable body of bibliographic material which it has secured or has had referred to it. This report would not be complete without an expression of appreciation for the helpful spirit and full cooperation the committee has received from so many who have made our work easier.

The Committee's Understanding of Its Task

The appointment of the committee to develop a philosophy of Christian higher education is interpreted as the desire of the General Synod to initiate such development with a clear and easily understood statement of philosophy that shall define and guide the carrying out of the mission of the Church in Christian higher education.

For many years Erskine College has included in its catalogs a statement of purpose. The statement of purpose in the catalog is viewed by the committee as the expression of the Board of Trustees to students and others who use the catalog. The statement of philosophy to be presented in this report is viewed by the committee as the expression of the General Synod to the Board of Trustees. It is intended to inform, to guide, to direct the Board of Trustees, to whom the Church delegates the responsibility of carrying out its mission in Christian higher education.

The committee interprets its task not simply as preparing and recommending for adoption a written statement. The task is far greater than that. It is to develop a philosophy. It cannot be achieved by this committee. It cannot be completed by this Synod. It is a continuing task. Redeeming elements of such a philosophy have prevailed at Erskine College and Erskine Theological Seminary from their beginning. Today's action can be a new beginning —a reaffirmation of the Church's mission and the means of implementing it.

In presenting this report, the committee recognizes that the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church, in its work as an institution of Christian higher education at Erskine College and Erskine Theological Seminary, delegates its authority and its mission to the members of the Board of Trustees of Erskine College, who are selected by the General Synod. To these servants of the Church, faithful to their trust, is given the privilege, the honor and the responsibility of developing and maintaining the philosophy of Christian higher education as expressed by the General Synod. It is believed that the Board of Trustees will be aided and strengthened in its work by knowing the will of the General Synod regarding the kind of college community that it believes will best reflect its philosophy and the kind of environment favorable to the carrying out of its Christian mission.

With much assistance from others and in a spirit of prayer for guidance, the members, in a completely harmonious joint effort as a committee, have prepared a proposed statement as a first step in the development of a philosophy of Christian higher education in the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church with goals and purposes of Erskine College and Erskine Theological Seminary. The proposed statement is attached and is made a part of this report.

Recommendations: The Committee recommends:

1. That, as an initial step in the development of the Philosophy of Christian Higher Education of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church with goals and purposes of Erskine College and Erskine Theological Seminary, this Report and the accompanying Statement be adopted by the General Synod.

2. That, as a part of the basic development of the Philosophy of Christian Higher Education, this Report and the accompanying Statement, as adopted, constitute the governing philosophy for policies established and maintained by the Board of Trustees of Erskine College in the operation of Erskine College and Erskine Theological Seminary.
3. That, as a primary effort in developing the Philosophy of Christian Higher Education, the chairman of the Board of Trustees of Erskine College be directed to place in the hands of each member of the Board of Trustees a copy of this Report and the accompanying Statement, as adopted.
4. That, as a continuing effort in the development of a Philosophy of Christian Higher Education, the Nominating Committee of the General Synod be directed, beginning with nominations to be made following the 1977 meeting of the General Synod, to furnish each prospective nominee for election to the Board of Trustees of Erskine College with a copy of this Report and the accompanying Statement, as adopted, so that the prospective nominee may have the benefit of this document in making his or her decision.
5. That, in making its annual report to the General Synod, the Board of Trustees be asked to include a special section relating to the implementation of this Statement of Philosophy of Christian Higher Education.

Respectfully submitted,
Special Committee on Christian Higher Education

STATEMENT OF THE PHILOSOPHY OF CHRISTIAN HIGHER EDUCATION OF THE ASSOCIATE REFORMED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH AS ADOPTED BY THE GENERAL SYNOD, June 2018

Introduction

Christian higher education for the service of God in church and society finds its roots in Biblical revelation. Since 1837, Christian higher education has been an integral part of the mission of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church. Truly, the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church, through its institutions of Christian higher education, has a history of distinguished Christian service. The value of its mission is immeasurable, for this mission has been an influence for good in the lives of thousands of men and women who have attended Erskine College, Erskine Theological Seminary, or Bryson College. Through many of these men and women, the Church itself has been blessed with strong Christian leadership and dedicated service.

The General Synod believes that there is a continuing need for the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church to express its objectives, to reaffirm its purpose, and to restate its philosophy of Christian higher education, including goals and purposes of Erskine College and Seminary.

In the following statement, the General Synod desires to preserve and incorporate all of the redeeming elements of the Church's philosophy that have prevailed at the College and Seminary from their beginning. In this statement the terms "Erskine" and "Erskine College" refer to both the undergraduate school and the Seminary, unless the context indicates otherwise.

I. The Role of the Church in Christian Higher Education

The Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church should re-examine on a continuing basis its total program in the use of its resources and in all areas of its mission. To this end the Church should ask itself continually what it is doing and what it ought to be doing in the field of education. It is clear that every Christian denomination should involve itself deeply in Christian education. A parallel question which every Christian denomination should ask is whether it also should be involved in the field of higher education and, if so, at what level and in what way.

We believe in the importance of education, and we believe that education represents a vital part of the mission of the Church. Furthermore, we believe that our denomination has a definite role to play in Christian higher education,

We believe this is so because Christian higher education offers the Church a unique opportunity to present Christ as the Christian's summum bonum, or "highest good." It is the Christian worldview, summarized in the biblical narrative of creation, fall, redemption, and consummation, which teaches love for God and for our neighbors as ourselves, and enables young men and women to discover the value of a life which is lived in right relation to God and man. We believe that only such a life can realize its fullest potential in service to God, the Church, and the world.

We believe that the Church has a responsibility not only to initiate the organizational structure for Christian higher education, but also to nurture Erskine College and Erskine Theological Seminary and to provide theological and philosophical guidance to it.

II. The Biblical Basis for Christian Higher Education

The Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church believes: The Bible alone, being God-breathed, is the Word of God written, infallible in all that it teaches, and inerrant in the original manuscripts. The Bible reveals God as the source of all truth. Reverence for Him and commitment to Him is the beginning and essence of wisdom. Jesus Christ, God's Son, and the Holy Spirit came to reveal this truth—truth which has the power to set people free from the bondage of sin. The Holy Spirit comes to make the truth of God's love in Christ real in our hearts. Therefore, for education to merit the term "Christian," it must be based on belief in God, the Source of truth; be centered in Jesus Christ, the Revealer of truth; and be guided by the Holy Spirit, the Inspirer of truth.

Taking their perspective from the Biblical view of God, man and the world, as expressed in The Standards of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church (See Footnote 1), Erskine College and Erskine Theological Seminary have a responsibility to stress Christian doctrine as well as Christian ethics; Christian commitment as well as academic excellence. Our calling in Christian higher education is to create an environment that nurtures the academic community in and by the truth of God's redemptive love in Christ and to equip its members for lives of useful service, whether in the full-time ministries of the Church, or in some other worthy calling.

III. Implementation

The carrying out of such a philosophy necessitates careful planning by Erskine College and Erskine Theological Seminary in several areas in accordance with The Standards of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church (See Footnote 2) and under the guidance of the principles of this statement. Full development will be achieved as the task is approached with a sense of mission by everyone within the Erskine community.

- a. The Trustees of Erskine College. The Board of Trustees of Erskine College is the authority of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church at Erskine. Representing the Church's presence in its work of Christian higher education, the Trustees are an integral part of the college community. For service in such positions of responsibility, it is incumbent upon the General Synod to select individuals who have a perception of the Church and its work that coincides with that of the Synod and who are kept informed of the Church's policies and purposes. A Trustee is a servant of Christ and His Church in one of the greatest and most sacred endeavors. In this task the Church needs Godly men and women of knowledge, wisdom, and dedication to this work.
- b. The Administration. In discharging its responsibility, the Board of Trustees should recognize that the administrators of the College serve as stewards for the Church. They also have additional responsibilities for meeting the demands of academic standards and accreditation, building a strong faculty, and presenting a program of studies which attracts students. Executive planning of this complexity requires deep Christian commitment, great professional skill, and committed dedication. It is imperative first, that the College have in these positions—as president, administrative and academic officers—individuals who have a deep personal commitment to Jesus Christ, informed and directed by the Holy Spirit through a Reformed theology and the Westminster Confession of Faith, and are highly qualified both in terms of their preparation for their vocations and faithfulness to the Board of Trustees and to the Church. These officers are charged with continuing commitment to the larger view of the College as a community of Christian scholars. Second, there must be kept open channels of regular communication between the Board of Trustees and the Synod in order to insure the most effective implementation of its educational commitments and goals.
- c. The Faculty. The Board of Trustees, through the Administration, must seek faculty members having first, a genuine and vibrant relationship with Jesus Christ, academic expertise, and moral integrity. Faculty members should believe in the centrality and enduring relevance of the Christian faith, demonstrate a profound interest in and commitment to faith-learning integration informed by the Reformed theological tradition as expressed in *The Standards of the ARP Church, and facilitate classroom and co-curricular learning that sets it apart from what is found in secular settings. The instructional focus should be on the pursuit of excellence in the various academic disciplines, critical thinking, insight and comprehension, and should encourage flexible and innovative approaches to teaching. Most importantly, faculty members ought to create a classroom experience focused on faith-learning integration. Freedom of inquiry guided by faculty members committed to the Christian and academic goals of the College should be encouraged.
- d. The Student. The student attending Erskine College becomes part of a meaningful tradition of Christian leadership and education for a life of service and witness. At a Christian college, the uniqueness of each individual is a basic premise, but our human dependence on Jesus Christ as the revealed Word of God and Savior of the World is of paramount importance. From these truths it follows that both the individuals comprising the student body and the ethos of a college campus that is truly Christian should manifest qualities distinct from the secular norm. At Erskine College, students are privileged to belong to a community of genuine concern and conviction, which it is their responsibility to foster and to maintain as they relate its values to the world around them. Under the supervision of the Board of Trustees, the administration, and the faculty, the student is expected to cooperate in creating and maintaining an environment that will honor God, promote the Christian goals of the Church and support the moral standards of the College. In the educational process, the student is expected to study and evaluate all knowledge objectively, while seeking God's guidance in biblical matters of faith, vocational calling and educational preparation.

- e. The Curriculum. The curriculum for Erskine College at the undergraduate level should focus on the liberal arts, with the Reformed theological narrative of creation, fall, redemption, and consummation as the unifying framework for all of the disciplines. Emphasis should be placed on the arts, sciences, vocations, and our cultural heritage. Substantial and pervasive emphasis should be placed on the study of the Bible, Christian ethics, and Christian apologetics as requirements for graduation. Along with providing strong majors in different fields, the curriculum should address the development of the whole student. An exposure to specialized areas of social and community service is an appropriate part of the total educational experience. Erskine Theological Seminary, being the professional school of Erskine College, prepares students for gospel ministry and has a special mission in Christian higher education. Its curriculum must be in harmony with The Standards of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church, and designed so that its graduates will be fully prepared to be effective ministers of the Word in a rapidly changing world.

IV. Interrelationship of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church and Erskine College

Erskine College represents the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church in higher education. The relationship between the College and the Church is organic; that is, Erskine College is related to the General Synod of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church as the arm of the Church in Christian higher education in carrying out the Biblical mandate to redeem all of life, especially man's moral and intellectual life, under the authority and Lordship of Jesus Christ.

- a. Responsibility of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church to Erskine College. Inasmuch as Erskine College is a church-owned Christian institution, the Church has ultimate responsibility for the administrative, academic, and moral integrity of the College. This responsibility is established and maintained through the Board of Trustees. The Trustees oversee the total administration of the College as a trust of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church.

The Church also has a responsibility to support the College financially and to render encouragement and affirmation to the College as it implements the goals and purposes of the Church.

- b. Responsibility of Erskine College to the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church. In order for the goals and purposes of Christian higher education to be realized, Erskine College, through its Board of Trustees, administration, and faculty, must embrace those principles and goals of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church. Within the context of Christian higher education, the College has the responsibility to pursue its theological positions as a servant of the Church.

This interrelationship should result in an academic community and educational experience that shapes students, both inside and outside of the classroom. All Erskine sponsored activity, whether curricular, co-curricular or extra-curricular in nature, should contribute positively toward the goals, purposes and standards of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church.

V. Erskine's Purpose

The purpose of Erskine College should be to provide sound training in a campus environment where evangelical Christian influence is supreme and pervasive. The role of the church-sponsored institution is the distinctive one of pursuing the integration of Christian faith and learning and responsible citizenship.

At the same time, Erskine College, seeking to present the claims of Christ to its students, should foster creative individualism by providing intellectual stimulation and by encouraging open dialogue. As a basic premise, the goals of education should be to open the mind and the heart to God's truth, to teach one to think Biblically and objectively, and to give direction to daily life. "In Thy light shall we see light." (Psalm 36:9b.)

As an arm of the Church, Erskine College exists for the glory of God, the good of the church and society, and for the education and flourishing of its students. Their interests must be valued and their individual and collective needs a matter of continuing concern. Erskine's goal must be to afford them the opportunity and encouragement to integrate knowledge and Christian faith in the development of the highest and best use of their abilities. A primary objective of the College should be to guide the student into the development of a mature Christian faith that is staunchly resistant to the impersonality and relativism of our time. Erskine's ultimate objective for every student must be the gaining of an understanding of the truth that "man's chief end is to glorify God and to enjoy Him forever." (Shorter Catechism Q/A #1)

Position Description for Executive Director of Outreach North America

The Executive Director of Outreach North America is the chief executive officer. He reports to the Chairman of the Board of Outreach North America, a board of the General Synod of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church. He is to be a resource person to General Synod, presbyteries, and congregations of the denomination. He will present a written report at each regular Board meeting, and will bring to the Board informative and innovative ideas that will enable the Board to explore new directions for its work. By direction of the General Synod, he will also serve on Synod's Committee on the Minister and His Work.

Duties and Responsibilities:

There are five (5) strategic areas for which the Executive Director is responsible. They are Evangelism, Church Planting, Church Vitality, National Development and Administration.

1. Evangelism:
 - To be a stimulus for evangelism as a primary activity for all congregations.
 - To provide training, literature and other resources as may be required to enable congregations to be effective in evangelism.
 - To develop a means for measuring the effectiveness of evangelism in congregations, both qualitatively and quantitatively.
 - To encourage the involvement of all groups, e.g. pastors, seminary students, youth, lay men and women in evangelism.
 - To support and encourage inter-cultural evangelism notably in parishes that are multi-ethnic, multi-cultural, and/or multi-religious.
2. Church Planting:
 - To be a stimulus for church planting throughout the denomination.
 - To develop a denominational church planting strategy.
 - To encourage congregations to engage in church planting by establishing mother-daughter congregations; by praying for and supporting the church planting activities of others; and by actively engaging in the encouragement and support of church planters and their families.
 - To help presbyteries develop an awareness of and responsibility for church planting and to provide support, resources and encouragement to the presbyteries.
 - To earnestly pursue the recruitment of church planters and to provide for their screening, training/equipping, and coaching/mentoring.
3. Church Vitality:
 - To be a stimulus for church vitality throughout the denomination.
 - To develop a strategy for denominational church vitality.
 - To work with presbyteries in developing plans to implement the strategy.
 - To provide assistance to declining or reclining congregations and to urge thriving congregations to achieve higher levels of success: vision-casting, exploring possibilities, and developing excitement and enthusiasm.
 - To provide training for pastors and church leaders and provide resources to aid congregations in church vitality.
4. National Development:
 - To aid in developing a national expansion strategy for the denomination.

- To respond to inquiries from individuals and congregations that express an interest in the denomination.
- To encourage the development of a warm and welcoming image for the denomination.
- To initiate advertising to “market” the denomination nationally.

5. Administration:

- To establish an effective and efficient base of operations for Outreach North America (ONA) in order to carry out the policies, communicate the purposes and goals, and oversee the ongoing business of the Board and its committees.
- To recruit and train such other officers/employees as may be necessary to accomplish the duties and responsibilities of the Executive Director.
- To maintain an effective communications system for ONA. This includes communicating with presbyteries about the challenges, needs, programs, plans, resources, and directions of the work of church extension, counseling with presbytery committees, pastors, church planters, sessions, and other groups concerning the work of church extension, and working with other boards, agencies and institutions of our own and other denominations to develop mutual programs of ministry that will further God’s work through the ARP Church.
- To represent the Board in cooperative agreements between presbyteries and the Board.
- To manage the finances of ONA.
- To report to the Chairman of the Board of ONA on all matters that the Board deems necessary and to work independently on all other matters.

BOARD OF STEWARDSHIP

(Revised, 2012 Synod)

- Note: As authorized by the 2004 General Synod, the Board of Directors, ARP Foundation and the Board of Stewardship united their mission and ministry under one board in September 2004. While the mission and ministry of the two (2) boards have been united, the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Foundation, Inc. ("Foundation"), will continue to exist as the legal entity for holding the assets contributed to the General Synod, including Gift Annuities, Charitable Trusts, and endowment-type funds. The members of the Board of Stewardship will serve as the directors of the Foundation and meetings will be held concurrently. Actions of the Board pertaining to the Foundation will be recorded in separate minutes.
- Membership: At Large: Six (6) members elected by the General Synod.
Presbytery Representatives: Chairman of Finance/Stewardship Committee from each presbytery or a representative chosen by the presbytery.
Ex-Officio: Treasurer of General Synod and Treasurer of Women's Ministries.
Advisory: Moderator of Synod, Moderator-elect of Synod, Administrative Officer.
- Terms of Service: At Large: Six (6) years.

- (11) invest endowment-type funds and other long term investments of the General Synod and of those agencies of Synod which commit funds to the Foundation, in accordance with guidelines approved by the General Synod.

ARTICLE II

The Board

Section 1. NUMBER AND TENURE. Membership on the Board shall be as follows:

- (a) Six (6) members elected by the General Synod each serving for a six-year term;
- (b) Chairman of Finance/Stewardship Committee from each presbytery or a representative chosen by the presbytery as an ex-officio member;
- (c) Treasurer of Synod and ARP Women's Ministries Treasurer as ex-officio members; and
- (d) the following as non-voting, advisory members: The Moderator and Moderator-Elect of the General Synod, and the Board's Administrative Officer.

Members elected by the General Synod shall not be eligible for a second term until one (1) year after completion of the term.

Members elected by the General Synod who are absent from two consecutive meetings of the Board without an approved excuse will be considered by the Board to have resigned and will be notified, and the General Synod shall be requested to elect a member to fill the unexpired term.

Section 2. VACANCIES. Vacancies shall be filled as set forth in Section 1 in this Article.

Section 3. MEETINGS. The Board shall meet at least two (2) times annually. The Board shall meet on the call of the chairman or secretary or any three voting members. Members shall be advised of a called meeting by telephone, electronic communication, or mail so as to receive notice of such meeting at least five (5) days before such meeting but such notice may be waived by any member. At any called meeting at which every member shall be present business other than that stated in the call also might be transacted. Telephonic conference-call meetings may be held when necessary; however, an affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the Board will be required for approval of action in a telephone meeting.

Section 4. QUORUM. A majority of the voting members of the Board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of the business of the Board. If at any meeting there is less than a quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time without notice in order to secure a quorum.

Section 5. AUTHORITY. The Board shall have responsibility for working cooperatively with the congregations and agencies of the General Synod to:

- (a) develop and administer programs and ministries to secure financial resources to meet the operating needs of the General Synod;
- (b) to present to the General Synod a recommended allocation of those resources;
- (c) and to receive, maintain, and administer funds given to the General Synod and/or the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Foundation, Inc., and to expend income for the furtherance of the work of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church.

In the exercise of its authority, the Board shall comply with The Standards of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church and shall act in an impartial and non-discriminatory manner.

Section 6. ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICER. The Board may employ an administrative officer or utilize the services of the Executive Director of Central Services as the administrative officer. Such administrative officer shall not be a voting member of the Board, and his duties shall be the duties usual to such positions and such other and further duties as may be prescribed from time to time by the Board.

Section 7. COMPENSATION. Board members shall not receive compensation for their attendance at the meetings of the board, but will be reimbursed for normal and reasonable expenses. Compensation paid to the administrative officer shall be within the limitations of a budget approved by the General Synod.

ARTICLE III

Officers

Section 1. OFFICERS. The officers of the Board shall be the chairman, vice chairman, secretary, treasurer, and such other officers as the Board may from time to time provide. The chairman, vice chairman, and secretary shall be members of the Board. The treasurer shall be the Treasurer of the General Synod.

Section 2. ELECTION. The chairman, vice chairman, and secretary shall be elected for a term of one year by the Board at its Spring meeting to begin service on July 1 following.

Section 3. VACANCIES. In case of a vacancy in any office of the Board, except for that of treasurer, the majority of the members then in office, even if less than a quorum, may elect an officer to fill such vacancy, and the officer so elected shall hold office and serve until the normal date for the end of a term of office.

Section 4. CHAIRMAN. The chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Board and perform such other duties as are usually incumbent upon and incident to this position which may be assigned from time to time by the Board. The chairman shall make committee appointments, subject to confirmation by the Board.

Section 5. VICE CHAIRMAN. The vice chairman shall have the power and perform the duties of the chairman during the absence or disability or refusal to act of the chairman or in case of a vacancy in the office of chairman, and perform such other duties which may from time to time be assigned by the Board.

Section 6. SECRETARY. The secretary shall perform the duties incident to this office or which may from time to time be assigned by the Board. He shall keep minutes of all the meetings of the Board and of the Executive Committee of the Board, and shall give notice of all such meetings requiring notice. The Board may appoint a Recording Secretary to record the minutes of Board and committee meetings.

Section 7. TREASURER. The treasurer shall perform all duties usually incident to his office or which may from time to time be assigned him by the Board.

ARTICLE IV

Committees

Section 1. EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE. The Executive Committee of the Board shall consist of the chairman, vice chairman, secretary, and chairmen of the other standing committees. The duties of the Executive Committee shall be

- (a) to handle emergencies between stated meetings of the Board;
- (b) to be of general assistance to the Treasurer of Synod and its administrative officer in areas of general management of the Board and General Synod which have not been specifically assigned elsewhere; and
- (c) to bring to the Board any recommendations deemed necessary for the good of the Board.

The committee shall keep full and accurate records of its proceedings and actions and shall report them to the next succeeding meeting of the Board. The Board may alter or revise such actions, provided that no rights of third persons shall be affected by any such revision or alteration.

Section 2. FINANCE COMMITTEE. The Finance Committee shall consist of not less than one-half of the voting members of the Board. This committee shall be responsible for items referred to it by the Board with specific responsibilities:

- (a) To develop and maintain the basis for determining Denominational Ministry Fund goals;
- (b) to develop, maintain, and communicate to the agencies of the General Synod a procedure for developing the recommended allocation of General Synod's unrestricted resources;
- (c) to approve the estimate of Denominational Ministry Fund resources for the ensuing budget year; and
- (d) to apply the procedure for developing the recommended allocation of General Synod's unrestricted resources in preparing the recommended allocations to the Board.

Section 3. COMMUNICATION AND EDUCATION COMMITTEE. The Communication and Education Committee shall consist of not less than one-half of the voting members of the Board. This committee shall be responsible for items referred to it by the Board with specific responsibilities:

- (a) to develop and/or identify, and keep current, resources which can be used for the teaching of total stewardship in Associate Reformed Presbyterian churches;
- (b) to develop and oversee an ongoing communication program with presbyteries and churches for securing financial resources for denominational ministries; and
- (c) to provide oversight for denominational deferred gifts.

The Committee shall be cognizant of the materials prepared by or under the auspices of the Executive Board of Synod and shall work cooperatively with the Executive Board of Synod in promoting the work of the General Synod.

Section 4. OTHER COMMITTEES. The chairman shall have the power to appoint such other committees as may be necessary for the efficient conduct of the business of this Board.

Section 5. LIMITATIONS. The Board shall at all times have power to modify, add to, take from or otherwise change and alter the duties and functions of committees, subject to the review of the General Synod.

ARTICLE V
Miscellaneous

Section 1. FISCAL YEAR. The fiscal year of the Board shall begin on the first day of January and terminate on the 31st day of December of each year. Terms of office for Board members will begin July 1 and will terminate on June 30 of the final year of their term of service.

Section 2. ANNUAL REPORT. The Board shall make an annual written report at the annual meeting of the General Synod.

Amendments

AMENDMENTS TO POLICY BOOK. This Policy Book may be amended by the Board members at any regular or special meeting, provided a copy of such proposed amendment has been mailed to each member of the Board at least ten days prior to the date of the meeting. A majority vote of the members of the Board shall be necessary for the adoption of any amendment at any such meeting. No amendment in conflict with any standing rule or action of the General Synod shall be adopted and all amendments must be reported to the General Synod for review.

A CONCISE STATEMENT ON BIBLICAL STEWARDSHIP
Board of Stewardship, Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church
(Approved by 1997 General Synod)

I. God, the sovereign creator¹, has given man the responsibility to act as His agent in the exercise of dominion over the creation for His own glory², through the faithful application of lawful means³. Man is obliged by the gifts, talents, favors, privileges and graces received under divine providence, to submit himself entirely to the holy and righteousness demands of the moral law and the gospel and to fully consecrate himself to active obedience to them as a steward of God⁴. This obedience is a most particularly just and binding obligation upon the beneficiaries of the eternal covenant in Christ⁵ and is acceptably discharged by faith alone arising out of a sense of gratitude to Christ for salvation⁶. The obedience of stewards extends comprehensively to every sphere of human activity and life.⁷ The end thereof is service to the Lord, the comfort and increase of the body of Christ⁸, and the enjoyment of God⁹.

II. As the steward of God, man has a duty to recognize that all gifts, talents, graces and abilities find their true and original source in God alone, the sovereign creator¹⁰. Therefore God reserves the propriety of these gifts to Himself, holding all men responsible to glorify Him by them, and calling men into account for their use or misuse at the last judgment¹¹. No man is made more honorable, able, gifted, or prosperous than another out of any particular and singular respect to himself but for the glory of his creator and the common good of man¹².

III. Time, itself a product of God's eternal creative power, is given to mankind along with life¹³. The number of days allotted to men being comparatively few in light of eternity¹⁴, great importance is attached to the proper use of time, all of which is to be employed under God in lawful activity. Time does not belong to man in autonomy, but must with conscious and diligent effort be used for God's glory in every area of life whether in evangelism, vocation, recreation or other personal activities¹⁵. He is to administer the private and public affairs of life so that they, with God's blessing, will be fruitful and profitable to his family, his neighbor, his superiors and himself, all to the furtherance of the Kingdom of God¹⁶.

IV. God, as the owner of all things, has given to mankind the privilege to hold and own property and to possess and use wealth for lawful uses as stewards of God¹⁷. This property and wealth is entrusted to men by God and is to be used for the fulfillment of duties and obligations to their family, vocation, church and civil government and other purposes acceptable to God¹⁸.

V. The giving of ten percent of one's income (the tithe) to the local church is a lawful means of supporting its ministry. The tithe is given in tangible response to the recognition that the sovereign and covenantal God is the true owner of creation and even of life itself. Tithing is an integral and important part of Christian growth and represents the ideal minimal financial participation of church members, deacons, and elders in the Lord's work through the local church¹⁹.

VI. Benevolent giving is a regular part of Christian and is to be done responsibly and discretely as unto the Lord by faith²⁰. This giving should not be motivated by selfish gain but by love for God, obedience to His Word, and love for neighbor²¹. Benevolent giving beyond the tithe is a rightful part of public worship as well as a private duty for the relief of distress and suffering²².

 8. To make an annual report to the General Synod.

THE BIBLICAL BASIS FOR MISSIONS
As Adopted by The General Synod of 1981
(Included in the Manual at the Direction of the 1990 General Synod)

The concept of missions begins with God and is revealed to man in the Scriptures. The Bible, itself being divinely inspired, has the power to accomplish God's purpose "...it shall accomplish that which I purpose and prosper in the thing for which I sent it" (Isaiah 55:11). And the truth of the Scriptures is one of the strongest weapons to be used in the spiritual warfare involved in missionary endeavor.

The basis for missions is Biblical from Genesis to Revelation. The covenant which God established with Abraham (Genesis 12:2,3) was intended to bless all the families of the earth. The final invitation which is extended in Revelation (Revelation 22:17) is given to all who will respond.

The mandate for missions was given clearly by the risen Christ when he said to the disciples, "Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, to the close of the age" (Matthew 28:19-20).

It is a matter of great urgency that the entire Church devote itself wholeheartedly to the carrying out of the missionary task—2.7 billion of the world's population (1981) have not yet heard the gospel. Given this vast multitude still to be evangelized, we should envision the time when missionaries should flow ever more freely from and to all six continents in a spirit of humble service. And special attention should be given to the cooperation of younger churches in missionary efforts (Acts 13:1-3). All churches should be asking God and themselves what they should be doing, both to reach their own area and to send missionaries to other parts of the world. The goal should be that by all available means at the earliest possible time that every person will have the opportunity to hear, to understand and to receive the good news.

The gospel does not presuppose the superiority of any culture to another, but evaluates all cultures according to its own criteria of truth and righteousness, and insists on moral absolutes in every culture. In every nation and culture there should be an effective training program for pastors and laymen in doctrine, discipleship, evangelism, nurture and service. This training program should not rely on any stereotyped methodology, but should be developed by creative local initiatives, according to Biblical standards.

The one living, eternal God, the Creator and Lord of the universe, the God who made Himself known as God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit, has been calling out from the world a people for Himself, and sending His people back into the world to be His servants and witnesses.

Jesus Christ is unique: "And there is salvation in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given among men by which we must be saved." (Acts 4:12).

The book of Acts reveals an enormous amount of information as well as principles to follow in mission work. For example, the truth that complete reliance upon the guidance and power of the Holy Spirit is absolutely essential to the success of the missionary effort is clearly seen in these words: "Set apart for me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them" (Acts 13:1-3). Another essential for success in missions is the use of prayer—illustrated throughout the book of Acts. Missionary work broke into the non-Jewish world in connection with the prayers of two men on the same day—Peter in Joppa and Cornelius, a Roman citizen, in Caesarea. The Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church cannot be successful in missions if she pays little attention to her prayer life and refuses to avail herself of the power of the Holy Spirit.

Jesus Christ sends (John 20:21) all of His redeemed people into all the world as the Father sent Him. World evangelism requires the whole Church to take the whole gospel to the whole world. The Church is at the very center of God's cosmic purpose and is His appointed means of spreading the gospel. In order to be successful in missions, the Church must be a united, loving, caring and supporting community. "...and the Lord added to their number day by day those that were being saved" (Acts 2:47).

The Church's message is the message of God's love in Christ for lost sinners. "The saying is sure and worthy of full acceptance, that Christ came into the world to save sinners" (I Timothy 1:15).

Missions is a comprehensive work including preaching, teaching, and healing. It is ministry to body, mind, and spirit. "Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse lepers, cast out demons" (Matthew 10:8).

Reconciliation and freedom are more and more the concern of people in today's world, but they were God's will for society long before they became man's quest; for God loves the good and hates the evil wherever these are found. "...cease to do evil, learn to do good, seek justice, correct oppression; defend the fatherless, plead for the widow" (Isaiah 1:16-17).

The Bible is very clear about the return of Christ. The consummation of God's redemption will be accomplished by Jesus Christ our Lord at His return, and not by the human construction of a Utopia on earth. And until His return, the Church is to occupy herself in the fulfilling of His commission to "go and make disciples of all nations."

Respectfully submitted,

NOTE: In preparing this statement, frequent use was made of John Stott's exposition and commentary on the "Lausanne Covenant," which grew out of the International Congress on World Evangelization, Lausanne, Switzerland, 1974. His booklet is No. 3 of the Lausanne Occasional Papers. It would be a good study guide for congregations or other groups in the church who desire to engage in an in-depth study on the subject of missions.

BYLAWS OF WORLD WITNESS, THE BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS OF THE

PREFACE

The Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church has as its highest body the General Synod. The General Synod conducts its business through presbyteries, major ministry boards and other agencies. World Witness is one of those boards. As such, General Synod empowers it to “perform the specific duties entrusted to it without particular instructions from the appointing court {General Synod} but shall follow the general instructions of the court.” (The Form of Government of the ARP Church 13.2.A)

These bylaws prescribe Board operations to accomplish this directive.

ARTICLE I – NAME, AUTHORITY AND PURPOSE

Section 1 – Name

The name of the organization is World Witness, The Board of Foreign Missions of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church and commonly referred to as “World Witness.”

Section 2 – Authority

World Witness is an agency of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church (ARP); subject to its Standards, governance and the oversight of General Synod. General Synod exercises this authority through its election of Board members.

The Board receives direction from General Synod that may approve, amend, or set aside any Board action.

World Witness also adheres to the authority and discipline of other church courts (presbyteries and sessions) in relations with ministers, missionaries and congregations.

World Witness is a nonprofit organization incorporated under the laws of the State of South Carolina. World Witness holds 501(c)(3) status from the U.S. Internal Revenue Service.

Section 3 – Purpose

World Witness’ purpose is to carry out the foreign mission work of the ARP Church.

The mission of World Witness is:

In response to the Great Commission of Jesus Christ, World Witness, the Board of Foreign Missions of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church is the agency of the ARP General Synod to which has been entrusted the administration of the international missions program of the ARP Church, primarily outside the United States and Canada.

Our purpose is to plant healthy, reproducing, God-glorifying churches, which are winsomely Reformed in doctrine and Presbyterian in structure, in defined communities across geographic and cultural boundaries.

World Witness realizes this purpose by sending and supporting missionaries and by mobilizing ARP churches to do so. Our missionaries proclaim Jesus Christ as the only Savior and Lord through evangelism, discipleship, church planting, Christian education and works of compassion.

Section 4 – Property

World Witness will hold title to various real and other properties that serve the foreign missions ministry of the ARP Church. It is also responsible for any property disposition.

All titles, deeds, contracts, leases and other such property documents must be carefully secured and preserved. Depending on local laws, appropriate property documents may be held in the World Witness office or by the Mission. If the original documents are held overseas, the missions should send copies and translations to the World Witness office.

The Board will supervise the upkeep and use of real property held in the US. The Board is responsible for determining the use of these facilities. The Executive Director will handle day-to-day property administration.

ARTICLE II – MEMBERSHIP

Section 1 – Members

The General Synod-designated individuals are members of this Board. Individually, members have no authority. Rather, the organization acts based on the collective decisions of its Board, as outlined herein.

Section 2 – New member orientation

The chair will develop an orientation program. This program is required for all new members of the Board.

ARTICLE III – THE BOARD OF WORLD WITNESS

Section 1 – Board role and operation

The Board is responsible for overall policy and direction of World Witness. It delegates responsibility for day-to-day operations to its Executive Director.

Section 2 – Oversight

The General Synod has oversight of all activities of the Board. It may approve, amend, or set aside any action by the World Witness Board.

Section 3 – Board size, terms, selection, vacancies and compensation

The Board consists of thirteen members; all serving 6-year terms. General Synod appoints twelve at large and ARP Women's Ministry appoints one member. Each group uses its established procedures to make the appointments and fill vacancies.

World Witness' Executive Director, the Moderator, Moderator-Elect, and a representative appointed by each presbytery serve as Advisory members. These Advisory members have all member privileges except the privileges of making motions, attendance in executive sessions, and voting. (General Synod has authorized the Moderator, Moderator-Elect and to attend executive sessions.)

Board members receive no compensation other than reasonable expenses.

Section 4 – Responsibilities

As General Synod's agent for foreign missions, the Board has responsibility:

- a. To direct the entire work of foreign missions for the ARP Church
- b. For the character of those who represent the ARP on the foreign fields, for their loyalty to the Gospel and ARP, for the fidelity and efficiency of their work, and the propriety of their methods
- c. To challenge the church's stewardship in support and development of foreign missions. It must also make wise and economical use of funds entrusted to it
- d. To cooperate with other churches and agencies in the US and around to world to support foreign mission work.
- e. To mobilize the ARP church to full engagement in and support of the mission of the church through prayer, missionary care, sending and going as well as through stewardship.

Section 5 – Specific Duties

The Board will:

- a. Define policy and through the Executive Director supervise the work of all missionaries and mission work. This includes any mission work regardless of how funded.

- b. Review the applications, counsel, appoint and assign missionaries to the field. It is then responsible for their work and support. It may cancel an appointment or recall a missionary when it feels the good of the work dictates.
- c. Advise the national churches about the conduct of World Witness work.
- d. Prepare an annual budget and oversee the Executive Director's execution of it. It should monitor financial records.
- e. Maintain full and accurate records of its meetings and actions. It makes these available for review as required by General Synod.
- f. Publicize the work of World Witness and opportunities for service.
- g. Make provisions for emergencies.

Section 6 – Duties of Members

Individual Board members will:

- a. Seek to serve God as a Board member.
- b. Attend and actively participate in the meetings of the Board.
- c. Fulfill the obligations of officers and/or committee members as appropriate to their assignments within the Board.
- d. Participate in setting agency policy and providing oversight for its use.
- e. Serve on at least one committee. Members have the privilege of attending the meetings of any other committee of the Board.
- f. Select the Executive Director, provide him with advice and counsel, and annually review his performance.
- g. Participate in an annual evaluation of the Board's work and of the relationship between the Board and the Executive Director.
- h. Keep abreast of current mission issues and take advantage of cross-cultural ministry opportunities.
- i. Promote the work of World Witness within the guidelines of Board policy.

Section 7 – Meetings and notice

The Board will meet at least semi-annually in the Spring (normally the first week of March) and Fall (normally the first week of October), at an agreed upon time and place. An official Board meeting requires that each Board member have written notice at least two weeks in advance. The secretary may convey this notice by mail, telephone, electronic communications or other effective means.

The Board will also meet on the call of the chair or any three voting members. The secretary will send each Board member notice of a special meeting at least two weeks in advance. This notice will state the purpose of the special meeting. Action during the meeting is limited to the agenda of the notice unless three-fourths of the Board members present agree to additional action.

The rules contained in the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order govern the Board in all cases where they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with the Standards of the ARP Church, directives of the General Synod or the Policy Manual.

The Board may hold electronic meetings. An affirmative vote of a majority of all Board members is required for approval of any action during an electronic meeting.

Section 8 – Quorum and passage of motions

A quorum must be present for the Board, or any of its committees, to conduct official business. A quorum is at least three-fifths (60%) of the full membership of the Board or committee. In the absence of a quorum, the body may take no formal action except to adjourn the meeting to a subsequent date/time.

Unless otherwise specified, passage of motions requires a simple majority of the members present. Only members present at a meeting may vote.

Section 9 – Officers, Election and Duties

There are three officers of the Board, consisting of a chair, vice-chair and secretary.

At the Spring meeting, a nominating committee composed of outgoing members nominates a slate of candidates. Members may nominate additional individuals.

The members, by majority vote, elect the officers annually to one-year terms. They take office on July 1st. The Board may elect an officer to serve consecutive terms.

a. The chair will:

1. Preside over the meetings of the Board and the Executive Committee.
2. Call for meetings of the Executive Committee to deal with urgent business.
3. Appoint members of all committees, except the Executive Committee, promptly after July 1st and designate the chair of each committee.
4. Act as an advisory member of all committees.
5. Represent the Board of World Witness when requested by the Executive Committee of the General Synod.
6. Regularly consult with the Executive Director in order that their combined efforts might be a mutual benefit to the Board.
7. Perform such duties in keeping with this office as the Board may request.

b. The vice chair will:

1. Fill the role of chair in the chair's absence and assist as requested
2. Chair or advise committees on special subjects

c. The secretary will:

1. Ensure the keeping of full and fair records of Board actions, including overseeing the taking of minutes at all Board meetings. The secretary provides the Executive Director a copy of all Board meeting minutes within seven working days.
2. Ensure the sending of meeting announcements, copies of minutes and agendas to each Board member.
3. Ensure the proper maintenance of official World Witness Board records.

Section 10 – Resignation, absences, and termination

Resignations from the Board must be in writing and received by the secretary. The Board will notify General Synod's Principle Clerk and the Chair of its Nominating Committee of any resignations.

Members who miss three consecutive meetings are subject to dismissal by the Board. The Board may remove a member for cause after a hearing before the full Board and a three-fourths vote of the remaining members of the Board present.

ARTICLE IV – COMMITTEES

Section 1 – Committee formation

The Board may create committees as needed for the efficient conduct of its business. The chair will appoint members to committees shortly after the joining of new members in July. The chair will also appoint a chair for each committee. Committee assignments are valid for one year; the chair may reappoint a member to the same committee in succeeding years. Standing Committees are the Executive Committee, Finance and Development Committee, Medical Advisory Committee, Personnel Committee, and Strategy Committee. The chair may appoint other committees as needed to facilitate agency business.

Committees have no governance responsibility but rather aid the Board in segments of its overall ministry. Committees may make recommendations to the full Board for action, as seem appropriate.

Committees may develop detailed procedures, guides and other aids to facilitate their work.

Committee chairs call meetings as needed or as requested by any committee members. The chair will preside over meetings and provide minutes to the Board secretary. The chair also organizes and ensures presentation of committee reports.

Section 2 – Executive Committee

The Executive Committee is composed of the three officers and the chair of all standing committees. The Executive Director and the Moderator of General Synod are advisors to the Executive Committee.

The Executive Committee gives general supervision to the affairs of the Board and Executive Director between regular Board meetings. It also deals with critical issues that may arise. Except for the power to amend the Policy Manual and Bylaws, the Executive Committee will have all the powers and authority of the full Board in intervals between Board meetings.

The Board Chair, in consultation with the Executive Director, may call a meeting of the Executive Committee to meet emergency situations. Three members of the Board or the Executive Director may also call for a meeting.

The Executive Committee will report all actions to the full Board at its next stated meeting. The full Board may affirm, amend or set aside any Executive Committee action.

Section 3 – Finance and Development Committee

The Finance and Development Committee develops and monitors the World Witness budget, income, and expenditures. Key roles include:

- Develop the budget for the coming year and make updates, as appropriate. (The full Board approves the World Witness budget and expenditures must be within the budget allocations. The Board, or Executive Committee, must approve any major change in the budget.)
- Oversee the development program and encouragement to churches to participate
- Ensure sound fiscal record keeping and controls; including an annual independent audit of finances
- Maintain liaison with General Synod's Board of Stewardship in relation to investment accounts.
- In coordination with Executive Director, set missionary salary levels.

Reviews the annual audit and makes appropriate recommendations to the Board.

Working with the Board Chairman, annually review the compensation plan for all missionaries and employees. The Board Chairman will specifically approve reimbursements to directors.

Section 4 – Medical Advisory Committee

The Medical Advisory Committee develops overall direction for medical programs. It also serves as the liaison with the Christian Hospital Sahiwal Board and Director. Key roles include:

- Set standards for medical and paramedical volunteers and short-term workers
- Identify medical needs (personnel and equipment) for fields and special areas
- Identify sources for volunteers.

Section 5 – Personnel Committee

The Personnel Committee develops overall direction for personnel programs. The committee chair may split the committee into Candidate and Missionary Subcommittees as needs suggest. Key roles include:

- Oversee proper recruiting, screening, selection, orientation and preparation of candidates to fill missionary positions
- Evaluate candidates and make recommendations to the Board concerning continued development and appointment

- Inform the Board of the ability to recruit candidates to meet field slots
- Meet regularly with missionaries to evaluate and address their needs (at home and on the field)
- Evaluate missionary life (pastoral care)
- Maintain WW policies directly related to candidates and missionaries
- Recommend to the Board changes in missionary status
- Coordinate missionary activities in supporting development.

Section 6 – Strategy Committee

The Strategy Committee develops long-term policies. It also oversees determination and changes in the mission fields. Key roles include:

- Maintain WW Policy Manual
- Project field staffing plans to include determining slots by fields
- Oversee the short-term missions program
- Recommend cooperative agreements with other mission organizations
- Evaluate the missionaries' ability to implement the fields' strategy
- Coordinate preparation of the annual report to Synod
- Review the mission statement and field status periodically
- Maintain Crisis Management procedures

ARTICLE V – EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR AND STAFF

Section 1 – Executive Director

The Board develops objectives, policy and strategy. It hires the Executive Director as the Administrator of the agency. The Executive Director has day-to-day responsibility for the organization, including carrying out the organization's objectives, policies and strategies. The Executive Director will attend all Board meetings, report on the progress of the organization, answer questions of the Board members and carry out the duties described in the job description.

The Executive Director, operating within Board's policies and directives, acts on behalf of the Board between meetings. When Board guidance is not present, or as seems prudent, he brings matters to the Board for discussion and decision.

The Executive Director is usually the spokesperson for the agency. He may speak for the Board and sign papers on its behalf, within limits established by the Board.

Section 2 – Staff

The Executive Director is responsible to hire, organize and supervise a staff necessary to support the World Witness ministry. These duties include:

- Recruiting missionary candidates and mentoring them through their commissioning
- Pastoral care of missionaries, employees, and their families
- Support development
- Financial management and record keeping. This includes routine handling of agency funds, within the guidelines established by the Board.
- General office management
- Administrative support to the Board

The Executive Director is the sole official link between the Board and the staff. He may delegate detailed discussions to staff members while retaining decision authority.

ARTICLE VI - MISCELLANEOUS

Section 1 – Fiscal year

The fiscal year of World Witness will begin the 1st day of January and terminate on the 31st day of December each year.

Section 2 – Annual report

World Witness must submit an annual report to the General Synod each year for consideration at its June meeting. The report will include personnel changes, financial information, key activities in the mission fields and other information as seem prudent. The Executive Director will draft this report for approval of the Board at its spring meeting.

ARTICLE VII – AMENDMENTS

Section 1 – Amendments

Proposed amendments must be presented at a meeting and may not be voted on until a subsequent meeting. A two-thirds majority of the members of the Board may amend these bylaws.

Section 2 – Reporting

Amendments to these bylaws will be reported to the General Synod in the World Witness' annual report.

CERTIFICATION

The Board approved these bylaws by a two-thirds majority vote on March 10, 2011.

The Board reported these bylaws to General Synod on June 7, 2011.

ECCLESIASTICAL COMMISSION
OF THE
GENERAL SYNOD OF THE
(Revised, 2012 Synod)

The Form of Government 13.6 defines an ecclesiastical commission as a body appointed and empowered by a court of the General Synod to examine, consider, and conclude certain designated business. The decisions of ecclesiastical commissions are to be reported to the appointing court. In the event of judicial cases, decisions may be appealed to the appointing court.

The following is a description of the authority and duties of the ecclesiastical commission appointed by the General Synod.

ECCLESIASTICAL COMMISSION ON JUDICIARY AFFAIRS

 4. To make an annual report to the General Synod of all other activities of the commission.
 5. Upon referral by the General Synod or the Executive Board of Synod, to review proposed changes in charters, constitutions, bylaws, and policy manuals in light of The Standards of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church, and report its findings to the appropriate agency, and if appropriate to the General Synod.

COMMITTEES
OF THE
GENERAL SYNOD OF THE
ASSOCIATE REFORMED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The Form of Government 13.11 defines a committee as a body appointed to study matters committed to it and to recommend appropriate action and carry into effect specific directives or decisions made by the appointing court.

Committees shall perform designated work according to specific instructions of the appointing court. All recommendations of committees require action by the appointing court. All committees shall make written reports to the appointing court.

The Form of Government 13.13.B.1 classifies committees as follows:

Moderator's Committees: These are temporary committees appointed by the moderator to serve at his pleasure. These committees function only during the meeting of Synod. A moderator's committee shall be appointed to consider reports to fulfill the requirements as set forth in and to consider other matters referred to it by the court. Moderator's committees shall be appointed to consider reports of the boards of Synod and memorials of presbyteries. Other moderator's committees may be appointed at the discretion of the Moderator, subject to the confirmation of the court.

Special Committees: These committees are appointed whenever the work of the court requires it. These committees may be appointed by the Moderator or the Committee on Nominations whenever authorized by the court.

Standing Committees: These are permanent committees appointed by the court to study and implement specific orders of the court. The General Synod has appointed the following standing committees:

- Committee on Campus Ministry Oversight
- Committee on Inter-Church Relations
- Committee on Investment
- Committee on Minister and His Work
- Committee on Nominations
- Committee on Revisions
- Committee on Theological and Social Concerns
- Committee on Worship

The following is a description of the authorities and duties of the standing committees appointed by the General Synod.

 7. To make an annual report to the General Synod.

Overview of Erskine Campus Ministry

[Adopted by 2011 Synod]

PURPOSE	Campus Ministry at Erskine College exists to provide Gospel ministry and pastoral care for Erskine students. The purpose of the ministry is to reach, nurture, and equip students with the Gospel of grace for the Christian life.
MINISTER	The General Synod of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church's commitment to this ministry includes calling and sending to the Erskine Campus an ordained minister who is trained in campus ministry.
MINISTRY	The campus minister is charged with building a healthy and productive work of ministry that emphasizes reaching, nurturing, and equipping Erskine students with the Christian Gospel. This ministry is both "fixed" and "flexible". The ministry is fixed in that the theology and philosophy of ministry are to remain in conformity with the Standards of the ARP Church . The campus ministry is flexible in that the methodology implemented by the campus minister can and should vary according to his particular giftedness and strategic approach to ministering to his demographic group.
PHILOSOPHY	The most efficient safeguard of a faithful and enduring work of campus ministry at Erskine is attained through formal affiliation with Reformed University Ministries. This affiliation provides necessary and ongoing ministry training and resources to equip the Campus Minister and interns. See affiliation agreement.
SYNOD	The Campus Minister and his work of ministry are under the direct oversight of a permanent standing Committee on Campus Ministry at Erskine. This committee meets at least two times each year for the purpose of evaluation, review and pastoral care, and support of the Campus Minister and Campus Ministry.
PRESBYTERY	The Campus Minister is a member of an ARP Presbytery and an active participant in the ministry and work of the presbytery.
FUNDING	The funding of salary, insurance, benefits, and the minimal expenses of having a campus ministry presence at Erskine is provided by the General Synod. Ministry program expenses are raised by the campus minister from individuals and churches.
ERSKINE	Though not technically an employee of Erskine College, the Campus Minister is a vital and central member of the Erskine Community and a chief contributor to its spiritual environment. His presence on the Erskine Campus is as a privileged guest and as a resource provided from the General Synod to Erskine as its institution and agency of higher education. The Campus Minister, at the request of the President of Erskine College and Seminary, provides pro bono chaplain services for the good of the community that may include chapel services, baccalaureate services, and participation in the graduation ceremony, and other requests that may be beneficial to Erskine, with the concurrence of the Synod's permanent oversight committee. In consideration of these services Erskine has agreed to provide the Campus Minister's office, strategically located on the ground floor of Watkins Student Center, and director level full campus privileges for the campus minister and his family. Erskine further agreed to continue the agreement begun in 2006 which allows Campus Ministry Interns to be housed in empty (unused) dorm rooms.

CAMPUS MINISTRY AFFILIATION OF
THE ASSOCIATE REFORMED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH WITH REFORMED UNIVERSITY MINISTRIES OF PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN AMERICA

Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church - Erskine College
[Adopted by 2011 Synod]

The Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church and Reformed University Ministries do hereby agree to an affiliation for the purpose of reaching students for Christ and equipping students for service on the Erskine College campus.

Through this agreement the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church and Erskine College are officially affiliated with Reformed University Ministries and thereby authorized to use said name and that of Reformed University Fellowship at Erskine College.

I. Responsibilities of Reformed University Ministries

- A. Reformed University Ministries will provide area assistance, staff resources, and coordination and supervision of the overall ministry.
- B. Reformed University Ministries will maintain a Committee on Reformed University Ministries. The Committee will consider and make recommendations to the General Assembly for appropriate action as it relates to a unified campus ministry. This action will include:
 - 1. Operational procedures and guidelines for staff and ministry.
 - 2. Staff - Staff recruiting, assessment, processing and job descriptions.
 - 3. Training - Providing a regular program of training for staff.
 - 4. Accounting - Including receipting and acknowledgement of gifts, payment of staff and programming expenses per presbytery specifications, and financial, budget and donor reports.
 - 5. Development - With data provided by the area coordinator, minister, staff, or intern, RUM will produce such items as initial appeal letters and regular newsletters. RUM will maintain all staff mailing lists within the ministry's donor database.
 - 6. Ministry-at-large - Coordinating and implementing agreed upon programs, projects, and ministries, including intern program, conferences, public relations, pastoral care, and insurance.

II. Responsibilities of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church

GA PCA - RUM affiliates ministries through PCA presbyteries and denominations with which the PCA has fraternal relations.

The Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church acknowledges and accepts the responsibility to:

- A. Oversee the campus minister under its jurisdiction who will be ordained and in good standing with the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church.
- B. Ensure the ministry is conducted in accordance with the doctrinal system set forth in the Westminster Confession of Faith, the Larger Catechism, and the Shorter Catechism of the Presbyterian Church in America.
- C. Ensure the ministry is conducted in accordance with the principles of Presbyterian polity.
- D. Establish an appropriate committee to implement the church's oversight of the ministry. The local South Carolina Committee on Campus Ministry will exercise its normal review. The staff member will report regularly to the PCA South Carolina Committee on Campus Ministry, as well as to an appropriate committee of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church.

- E. Call and hire all staff, (with the approval of Reformed University Ministries) who will work with Reformed University Fellowship at Erskine College.
- F. Determine all staff salaries and budgets.
- G. Fund the ministry, assuming sole responsibility for all staff salaries and ministry expenses.
- H. Make contributions toward the cost of area assistance. $500 per month for the Campus Minister and $75 per month for each intern.
- I. Ensure participation of all campus ministers, staff, and interns in training provided by Reformed University Ministries. Area and local staff will assist when needed in providing such training.
- J. Ensure participation of campus ministers, staff, and interns in area-wide and ministry-at-large programs and projects.
- K. Participate in the overall campus ministry through involvement in RUM campus organizational structure.
- L. Encourage its members to pray for Reformed University Fellowship, to refer contacts to the Reformed University Fellowship staff, and to make students aware of this ministry at the Erskine College.
- M. The ARP synod will provide a method of handling the cost of the ministry and provide for the salaries and related benefits and all ministry programs, training, and support costs.
- N. As a rule, Campus Ministers have a line item in the programming budget to cover training. In lieu of this, Reformed University Ministries – Atlanta will invoice the Associate Presbyterian Church for the costs incurred by the campus minister for training and conferences (materials, housing, meals, etc.).
- O. Insure that the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church carry out the work in the manner set forth in this affiliation agreement.

COMMITTEE ON INTER-CHURCH RELATIONS

- Membership: At Large: Nine (9) members, one (1) of whom shall be nominated from a name or names submitted by the ARP Women's Ministries.
Advisory: Moderator of Synod, Moderator-Elect of Synod, Principal Clerk of Synod (2005 Synod), Executive Director of Central Services (2009 Synod).
- Terms of Service: At Large: Six (6) years.
Advisory: As determined by the office to which elected or appointed.
- Stated Meetings: At least annually.
- Organization: Officers: Chairman, Vice Chairman, Secretary.
- Authority: The Committee on Inter-Church Relations is responsible for maintaining relations with church bodies and interdenominational agencies as specified by the General Synod.
- In the exercise of its authority, the Committee on Inter-Church Relations shall comply with The Standards of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church.
- Policies with regard to inter-church relations previously approved by the General Synod which are not in conflict with these revisions of the Manual of Authorities and Duties shall continue in full force unless and until revoked.
- Duties:
1. To present to the General Synod for approval the names of the ruling elder or minister delegates to the annual meeting of the North American Presbyterian and Reformed Council (delegates to include the Moderator, Moderator-Elect or their respective Vice Moderators as alternates); and to receive and review the report from NAPARC as well as from the delegates and disseminate information from these reports through the denominational magazine. (2008 Synod)
 2. To present to the General Synod names of ministers or ruling elders for consideration for nominations as fraternal delegates for assignment during the following calendar year to the Synods of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church in Mexico and Pakistan and other denominational bodies as directed by the Synod. In the event a selected delegate is unable to serve it shall be the duty of the chairman of the Committee on Inter-Church Relations to make a suitable appointment of a substitute. Fraternal delegates and representatives to other General Synod or General Assemblies shall be ordained ruling elders or ministers of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church.
 3. To maintain relationships of Fraternal Fellowship with the denominations approved by the General Synod. This relationship of Fraternal Fellowship is appropriate for churches: (A) which are other branches of the ARP Church outside of the United States, recognized by our General Synod, including the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church in Mexico; the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church in Pakistan; and other Associate Reformed Presbyterian Churches which may be formed in the future (NOTE: Relationships which involve a channeling of financial or people resources in programs overseas are the responsibility of the Board of World Witness.); (B) which are Reformed as to confession (i.e., churches that adhere to the Westminster Confession and Catechisms, and/or the Heidelberg Catechism, the Belgic Confession, and the Canons of the Synod of Dordt), polity, and liturgy, as determined not only by their formal standards, but also by their actual practice. This relationship is understood to involve: (1) exchange of fraternal delegates at major assemblies; (2) occasional pulpit fellowship under the oversight of presbytery (where the ministers in question would satisfy the ordination requirements of the ARP Church); (3) intercommunion under the oversight of the local session [i.e., fellowship at the table of the Lord]; (4) joint action in areas of common responsibility; (5) communication on major issues of joint concern; (6) the exercise of mutual concern and admonition with a view to promoting the fundamentals of Christian unity. (NOTE: Denominations approved are the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church of Pakistan, the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church of Mexico, the Evangelical Presbyterian Church, the Reformed Presbyterian Church in North America, the Presbyterian Church in America, the Orthodox Presbyterian Church, and the Korean-American Presbyterian Church.) (CRC deleted 2011 Synod).

4. To maintain relationships of Fraternal Correspondence with the denominations approved by the General Synod. This relationship involves correspondence and, where appropriate: (1) the exchange of official representatives at major assemblies; (2) joint action in areas of common concern; (3) consultation on issues of joint concern; and (4) intercommunion with the oversight of the local Session, i.e., fellowship at the table of the Lord. (NOTE: Denominations approved are the Reformed Church in America, the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, and the Cumberland Presbyterian Church in America.) (1999 Synod) (PCUSA deleted 2010 Synod).
5. To present to the General Synod names of teaching or ruling elders for assignment as fraternal delegates to those denominations approved by the General Synod; and to receive and review reports from the fraternal delegates and disseminate information from these reports.
6. To appoint a teaching or ruling elder as a delegate to attend any concurrent meeting of one or more Assemblies/Synods of NAPARC denominations; and to receive and review a report from the delegate.
7. In consultation with the Moderator of Synod, to appoint the General Synod representative(s) to NAPARC Study Committees. (1994 Synod)
8. To exchange official minutes with those denominations approved by the General Synod.
9. To investigate and study ecumenical relations that would be beneficial to Synod and to make recommendations accordingly.
10. To evaluate present relations of our church with other church bodies and interdenominational agencies and to make recommendations accordingly.
11. To prepare an annual budget for submission to the General Synod, which shall include membership fees for interdenominational bodies, our fraternal delegates' and representatives' expenses, hospitality for fraternal delegates and representatives attending our General Synod (but not their travel expenses), Inter-Church Relations Committee meeting and travel expense, and when necessary, assistance in bringing Mexican and Pakistan delegates to our General Synod.
12. To host delegates from organizations mentioned herein and present them to the General Synod.
13. To insure that persons serving as a representative or delegate submit written reports (including a summary/text of their address) to the chairman and secretary of the Committee. (2000 Synod)
14. To insure that when written greetings are sent to the annual meeting of another denomination, the letter (prepared by the Committee Secretary) be prepared for the signature of the Committee Chairman and the Principal Clerk of Synod.
15. To make an annual report to the General Synod including an index listing of all reports received by the Committee during the year.

BASIS AND GUIDELINES FOR INTER-CHURCH RELATIONS (1980 Synod)

The basis for inter-church relations is our belief in the holy catholic church, as set forth in the Scriptures, proclaimed by the Westminster Confession of Faith, and reiterated in our Constitution: "There is but one Church set forth in the Scriptures." (Form of Government 1.4)

The unity of the church does not require uniformity. Rather, it is a marvelous unity that allows for diversity of ministry, of thought, and of action. Our relationship to other churches does not require complete agreement on doctrine, but depends on our mutual relation to Jesus Christ and God's Word (I Cor. 12).

The ministry of Jesus Christ has been given unto the universal church (Confession of Faith, XXV,iii). Therefore, insofar as we withhold fellowship from other true Christian bodies, we miss part of our own body, and the ministry of the church is weakened. In like manner, the rest of the body of Christ misses us, since as people of faith, we are essential to the life and service of the universal church.

The unity of the church is not an achievement of the church, but a gift from its Lord. Our participation in inter-church activities is an expression of this unity and an exploration for greater unity in growing toward the fullness of the stature of Christ (Eph. 4:15-16).

We, therefore, maintain relations with other church bodies because membership in the Church of Jesus Christ is constituted by faith in Jesus Christ, and not by membership in any one denomination; because those who profess faith in Jesus Christ are our brothers and sisters to whom we are united in love; and because we share a unity that transcends denominational lines.

GUIDELINES

1. The fundamental guideline for inter-church relations is the confession of faith in Jesus Christ.
2. The General Synod will seek to practice our confession of belief in the holy catholic church by a declaration of our underlying unity with all churches who confess Jesus Christ as Lord, according to the Scriptures, and by recognizing the mutual dependence of all church bodies throughout the world in carrying out our ministry.
3. The General Synod will seek a clearer understanding of the expressions of faith of other churches by a willingness to interpret such expressions of faith in the best light instead of their worst, and by a willingness to revise continually our understanding of the expressions of faith of others. At the same time we will be realistic in evaluating either the validity or non-validity of such expressions of faith.
4. The General Synod will seek to face openly the issues which have caused separation.
5. The General Synod will seek to maintain its own integrity. The goal of inter-church relations is not to water down our own standards, but to offer the advantages of our own heritage to the church at large.
6. The General Synod will seek to maintain formal ties with the Reformed family of churches, which while including most denominations which are presbyterian in government, does not exclude churches who may subscribe to other forms of government, but do share our Reformed heritage.
7. The General Synod will seek to maintain special ties with churches with whom we have a historical relationship; especially those churches formed through our missionary endeavor.
8. The General Synod will be aware of special geographical considerations which may make it practical to share the life and service of the church.
9. The General Synod will seek to cooperate with other church bodies whenever and wherever practicable for the fulfillment of the mission and ministry of the church.

Unity of the Church

Under the general topic of “Unity of the Church” there are three rudiments or first principles which we need to state in a very concise manner. These rudiments are: the Vision, the Basis, and the Disposition.

The Vision

Before proceeding into any discussion of church unions, etc., the vision or mandate from Scripture must be taken seriously. Scripture teaches that the invisible church is one and consists of the elect “that have been, are, or shall be gathered into one.” In this invisible church there is essential oneness of the Church in the Old and New Testaments. Indeed, we should praise God for this great mystical truth and the power of His grace in the creation of the catholic church.

Being limited creatures in this life, we see the visible church with all its imperfections and impurities. Yet Christ prayed that we might reflect the unity of the Church even in this temporal, visible church. “May they be brought to complete unity to let the world know that you sent me...” (John 17:23a NIV). Jesus is clearly praying for a unity amongst His believers that they may be a witness to the world. All Christians must acknowledge this desire before the Lord and be desirous to be sanctified more and more to this end. It is a tremendous vision, “How good and pleasant it is when brothers live together in unity!” (Psalm 133:1 NIV)

The Basis

Nowhere does Scripture teach unity at any price. For two denominations within the visible church to unite there must be “Doctrinal consensus.” Scripture speaks repeatedly of holding to and maintaining the truth in love, e.g. Acts 2:42, Jude 3, and I John 2:21-27, etc. Furthermore, we believe that the Westminster Confession and Catechisms are good biblical theology and therefore we would have no desire to depart from such in terms of theology and polity. The basis of unions must then be upon the “doctrinal consensus” of all the parties concerned, namely these Subordinate Standards. If there is not a doctrinal consensus then all attempts at unity are really “paper thin.” Doctrinal distinctives are not bare and cold agreements on articles of religion, acts of worship and discipline alone. “Love must cement the union which faith has formed.” Likewise, peace and unity are not always the infallible marks of a true and pure church. Sacrifices in the name of union can be made which give “undue latitude” simply in order to procure peace and unity with fellow Christians.

The Disposition

Finally, Christians desirous to speak of unity in the church and those open to strengthening the unity of the visible church need to possess certain dispositions. They must “Love the truth and peace.” (Zech. 8:19) There must be a love for the truth of the Word and a love of peace and gentleness, not a contentious spirit. Other qualities necessary are: a disposition to be open, ready to hear what may be advanced, free from equivocation, no concealment of truth (in essence, Christian candor). The gifts of knowledge and wisdom must be sought of the Lord along with a spirit that will stand for the right and not for self-interest and worldly gain.

There are two extremes to be aware of. The first extreme is indifference. We are not to be “hard-hearted” and “unmoved” by the wounds of the Church, but rather we must desire to pour healing oil. Secondly, beware of the “Spirit of error” that would cause one to fall away from standing for the truth and honoring the vows he has made before the Lord. Finally, guard against an impatient disposition. God's providential time is beyond our comprehension of the moment.

To encourage presbyteries to maintain close ties with their ministers who are serving in work not specifically under the supervision of the presbyteries.4. To assist the minister in areas of his work so long as it does not usurp the authority and responsibility of the presbytery.5. To prepare, on a periodic basis, a uniform, written examination for all candidates for ordination, to be administered by the Presbyteries as they think appropriate.<ol style="list-style-type: none">(a) The sole purpose of the examination would be to determine the candidate's knowledge of Bible, theology, church history, church government and pastoral care. The written examination would not solicit the candidate's personal views on issues, but would leave that part of the examination to the presbyteries when the candidate would have the opportunity to elaborate upon his personal views.

- (b) The written examination would not prohibit the Presbytery from asking additional questions about the candidate's knowledge of the Bible, theology, church history, church government and pastoral care. The purpose of the written exam is to provide the Presbytery with advanced information about the candidate's knowledge and to permit the Presbytery more time to evaluate the candidate's personal views and his ability to apply his knowledge to life situations.
 - (c) It is understood that the uniform written examination would be only one aspect of the overall evaluation of the suitability of the candidate for ministry.
- 6. To submit an annual operating budget to the General Synod.
 - 7. To make an annual report to the General Synod.

GUIDELINES FOR COMMITTEE ON NOMINATIONS

The Committee on Nominations is charged by the Synod with the responsibility of submitting to the Synod a slate of nominees to fill all of the vacancies which come open each year on all of the boards and committees of Synod. In order that this task be accomplished in the best way possible, the Committee goes through the following procedures:

1. Ministers, sessions, board and committee chairmen, presbytery clerks, and members of the Committee on Nominations are:
 - a. notified in writing of the annual meeting of the Committee on Nominations;
 - b. provided with a list of vacancies to be filled;
 - c. invited to submit recommendations to fill those vacancies; and
 - d. provided with a form to be used in submitting recommendations, to include:
 - (1) Complete mailing address and telephone numbers(s)
 - (2) Church membership and offices held
 - (3) Position or vacancy for which recommendation is submitted
 - (4) Background information and qualifications

A notice shall be published in The Associate Reformed Presbyterian inviting the general membership to make recommendations. Recommendations must be made on the form provided by the Committee on Nominations, and must include the satisfactory evidence of his or her belief and adherence to the basic doctrines of evangelical Christianity as adopted by the General Synod and as set forth in a Manual of Authorities and Duties. (2005 Synod)
2. Presbyteries are requested to appoint Presbytery Representatives and Presbytery Nominees at the fall meeting of Presbytery to preclude the nomination of such persons to other vacancies.
3. Prior to the annual meeting of the Committee on Nominations each committee member is provided with a set of the submitted recommendations. In the absence of nominees or for other pertinent reasons, committee members are encouraged to seek nominees for consideration at the annual meeting, securing the information outlined in Guideline No. 1.
4. It is the purpose of the Committee to seek out and name individuals best qualified to serve. The Synod has designated that certain positions are to be filled by women and by presbytery appointments. Geographic representation is a strong consideration, there being an effort to have each presbytery fairly represented. An attempt is also made to have laity and clergy equitably represented, or represented according to Synod's policy.
5. Prospective nominees are contacted to confirm their willingness to serve.
6. The slate of nominees with church affiliation indicated is provided to delegates to Synod in advance of the annual meeting for study.
7. The Committee submits to the Synod at its annual meeting, the slate of nominees, and recommends that, if additional nominees come from the floor, the matter of geographic representation and prior consent of the individual must be kept in mind.
8. The following additional guidelines are followed in the selection of nominees:
 - a. Persons who have served for more than a half term on a board or committee are ineligible to succeed themselves, except as specifically authorized in the Manual of Authorities and Duties.
 - b. Employees are ineligible for nomination to a board or committee under whose jurisdiction that person is employed. This includes mission developers.
 - c. Except for those persons who are serving as advisory or ex-officio members from another board or standing committee, persons shall not be nominated to more than one board, standing committee, or Ecclesiastical Commission.
 - d. Persons who are serving as presbytery representatives on boards and standing committees ordinarily shall not be nominated to other boards and standing committees.
 - e. Effort shall be made to preclude the nomination to a board or committee of more than one person from the same congregation. The Committee on Nominations shall not nominate more than one person from a congregation to a board or committee per year. (1986 Synod)

- f. Members of the Committee on Nominations shall refrain from nominating themselves for terms on any board or committee. (1986 Synod)
- g. An employee of a board or committee who is serving as a presbytery appointee on the Committee on Nominations shall not make nominations for appointments on the board or committee that employs or governs the institution which employs the individual, and shall be excused when nominees for the employing board or agency are being discussed.

COMMITTEE ON REVISIONS

(Synod 2016)

Purpose

The Form of Government requires that a committee be established by the General Synod to review all revisions related to constitutional matters of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church (ARPC) that are brought before the General Synod. Constitutional matters include the following documents of the ARPC: the Form of Government, the Directory of Public Worship, the Book of Discipline, the Manual of Authorities and Duties, the Rules of Order, the Bylaws of General Synod, the Confession of Faith, and the Larger and Shorter Catechisms.

The name of this committee is dictated in the FOG as the "Revision Committee." The Revision Committee of the ARPC, as an agency of the ARPC General Synod, shall fulfill this duty. The Revision Committee of the ARPC (called the Committee throughout this document) is a standing committee of the ARPC General Synod.

The Committee's purpose is to review all amendments, memorials, motions to add to, or subtract from, changes or requests to modify or remove, or any other type of revision to any statements found in the ARPC constitutional documents (aka The Standards), before they are presented for discussion on the floor of the General Synod; and for the Committee to report back in writing to the General Synod at its next meeting the Committee's findings regarding the impact of proposed revisions upon 1) the constitutional document under review and 2) the principles of government contained within the ARPC Book of Standards.

Membership

Membership requirements to serve on the Committee shall conform to the Standards of the ARPC.ⁱ Synod's Committee on Nominations shall recommend to the General Synod members to the Revision Committee classes as openings arise. To commence the Committee, the Moderator shall appoint the first two classes, which shall constitute a quorum until Synod's Committee on Nominations is able to fill the remaining class openings.

Membership on the Revision Committee shall be as follows:

At Large: Eight (8) members divided into four classes of two members each. Each class shall be composed of an ARPC elder and an ordained ARPC minister.

Advisory: Moderator of Synod, Synod's Principal Clerk, Synod's Parliamentarian, Executive Director of Central Services.

Alternates: one ARPC elder and one ARPC ordained minister shall be elected annually by the General Synod to fill the place of any member unable to attend a Committee meeting, or replace a member who resigns before his term has expired. Alternate members only have full membership privileges for the meeting they are called upon to serve, or when installed as a class replacement.

Terms of Service

At large membership shall be recommended by Synod's Committee on Nominations and approved by the General Synod. At large membership shall serve for a term of four consecutive years. Members may be appointed for a second consecutive term (for a total of eight years). After the completion of two consecutive terms, members must roll off the Committee for one year before being reappointed. Appointees filling a vacant position of an unexpired term shall serve the remaining time of that class. Fulfilling a partial or unfinished term for two or more years constitutes serving one full term.

Terms shall begin July 1 of the year in which the appointment is made and expires the last day of June of the year of the class appointed. In the case of a nominee elected by the General Synod to fulfill an unexpired term, his term shall commence immediately upon being elected.

Stated Meetings

The Committee shall meet at least annually. Committee meetings may be called by the General Synod,

Moderator of Synod, Synod's Principal Clerk, Chairman of the Committee, by a majority of the Committee, or convene at stated times by the Committee. Meetings shall be given at least fourteen (14) days notice. The Committee may use electronic methods to accommodate and constitute a meeting.

Organization

The Committee shall annually elect a Chairman, Vice-Chairman, and Secretary as officers of the Committee upon its first meeting following the General Synod.

A quorum shall consist of a majority of the Committee members (see note above on the initial Committee appointments).ⁱ Alternates may be used to satisfy quorum requirements. Advisory members are not counted when determining quorum requirements.

The Chairman of the Committee shall be an advisory member to the Executive Board. The Chairman is authorized to designate an alternate should he be unable to attend an Executive Board meeting.

Authority

The Committee, as an agency of the ARPC, shall have authority to assemble and study matters committed to it from the General Synod and report back Committee findings as they relate to revising the ARPC constitutional documents. All amendments brought to the floor of the General Synod shall be referred to the Committee before they are discussed and voted upon by the General Synod.

The Committee Chairman has authority to create sub-committees that shall report to the Committee on specific issues related to constitutional matters.

The Committee shall report directly to the General Synod.

The General Synod shall fund the Committee's activities. The Committee shall present an annual budget reflecting funds necessary for operations.

Editorial changes for purposes of clarity not affecting the substance or intention of constitutional documents may be made by Synod's Principal Clerk or the General Synod Revision Committee. Editorial changes such as grammatical, syntactical, and spelling do not require a General Synod vote.ⁱ All boards and agencies of the General Synod have authority to make non-substantive changes (changes that do not require General Synod approval) to their documents as needed.

The Committee may suggest to the General Synod editorial improvements to a proposed revision for the purpose of aligning it to the ARPC Standards, presbyterian polity and form, and to reflect the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order's constitutional format for parliamentary rules (10th edition).

The Committee shall not give opinions on proposed revisions, recommendations on the merits of any constitutional matter sent to it by the General Synod, or initiate changes to the ARPC Standards unless specifically directed to do so by the General Synod or the Executive Board of the General Synod.

The Committee shall not make evaluative comments on a revision unless the revision contradicts the current Confession of Faith or Catechisms.

Individual members of the Committee, as members of the General Synod, have the right to express personal views as individuals on a proposed revision on the floor of the General Synod provided they are not representing the Committee.

The Committee recognizes that the General Synod has authority to act upon a constitutional revision without referring it to the Committee by suspending its rules.

Duties

To serve as an Advisory Committee to the General Synod on constitutional matters during the assembly of General Synod and throughout the year. It shall consider the content of proposed revisions and advise Synod regarding any additional changes to the ARPC Standards if a proposed revision is passed.

To study and respond in writing to all revisions made to the ARPC Standards presented to the General Synod to the next meeting of the General Synod. The General Synod may provide particular instructions for the Committee regarding its handling of a proposed revision. The Committee shall not provide recommendations, directions on how to vote, or evaluate the merits of a revision unless the General Synod specifically requests such recommendations, directions, or evaluation.

To assist and advise the Moderator, Synod's Principal Clerk, Parliamentarian, Executive Director of Central Services, standing and special committees, commissions, boards, and agencies of the General Synod on constitutional matters between meetings of the General Synod at their request.

To record, maintain, and keep current minutes of the Committee according to Robert's Rules of Order (RRO). Minutes shall include all Committee members' reports and research related to the revisions brought to its attention.

To recommend its report be received and its annual budget be approved by the General Synod.

APPENDIX

Board Member Removal Policy

[Adopted by 2013 Synod]

The Objective: Synod's Policy on Board Member Removal seeks to create a biblical, lawful, and just process for the removal of ineffective Trustees and/or Committee Members while, at the same time, discouraging frivolous and harassing complaints.

The Definitions: The policy referenced below contains certain terms that may require clarification in order to understand fully the process for removal. Those terms are as follows:

1. "Duty of Care" should be understood as the duty to carry out the responsibilities of a trustee or board member.
2. "Fiduciary Duty" should be understood to mean the avoidance of conflicts of interest, the duty to maintain the confidentiality of the Board or Committee, or similar duties defined by law.
3. "Physical or Mental Capacity" should be understood to mean the physical and mental ability to be involved and to make reasoned judgments.
4. "Moral Duty" should be understood to mean compliance with moral and legal standards of behavior.
5. "Statements of Belief" should be understood to mean:
 - (a) for Trustees, Officers and Board members other than Erskine, the Standards of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church; and
 - (b) for Erskine Trustees, the Synod's Philosophy of Christian Higher Education and Synod's Definition of an Evangelical, as they existed at the Erskine Trustee's time of appointment.
6. "Preponderance of the Evidence" should be understood to mean evidence which, taken as a whole, is more probable than not.

The Policy:

Process for the Removal of Trustees and/or Committee Members from the Agencies and Standing Committees of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church (ARPC).

Introduction: The Synod of the ARPC reserves the right and duty to remove for cause members of its Boards and Standing Committees through the following process:

Causes For Removal: The Synod of the ARPC expressly adopts the removal of members of its Boards and Standing Committees only "for cause" including, but not limited to, the following:

1. Neglect of Duty;
2. Breach of Fiduciary Duty;
3. Physical or Mental Incapacity;
4. Moral Failure; and,
5. Doctrinal Deviation; including:
 - (a) for Trustees, Officers, and Board Members (excluding Erskine) failure to accept, believe and affirm in practice The Standards of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church; or.
 - (b) for Erskine Trustees failure to accept, believe and affirm in practice the Synod's Philosophy of Higher Education and Synod's Definition of An Evangelical.

Process for Removal:

1. Based upon the enumerated causes referenced above, any Pastor in good standing in a Presbytery of the ARP Church or any Elder in good standing in an ARPC Session may file a Petition for Removal against any member of any Board, Agency or Standing Committee of the ARPC.
2. Prior to initiating a Petition for Removal, in the spirit of Matthew 18:15-17, a concerned Pastor or Elder should attempt to resolve his concerns with the Board/Agency/Committee member.

3. If the matter is unresolved and the Petitioner feels further action should be initiated, he should in the same spirit of Matthew 18:15–17, notify the Board/Agency/Committee member immediately of the intent to file a petition for removal.
4. The Petition for Removal shall include the following:
 - A. The contact information and church status of the Petitioner;
 - B. The name of the member or members being charged and the Board or Standing Committee they represent;
 - C. The nature of the charge and the evidence to support the charge;
 - D. A statement that the requirements of 1 – 3 above have been met;
 - E. The names and contacts of at least two additional Pastors or Elders in good standing that support and confirm the accuracy and truthfulness of the Petition; and,
 - F. The Petitioner's signature under the following - "I submit this Petition in good faith and Christian conscience. I understand and accept that should this Petition be found untrue or frivolous, the Ecclesiastical Commission on Judiciary Affairs may recommend to my Presbytery the initiation of proceedings against me."
5. The Petition for Removal shall be filed with the Principal Clerk of the ARPC. The Principal Clerk shall present the Petition for Removal within 14 days to the Moderator who shall call a special meeting on the matter with the Executive Board of the ARPC, unless a meeting of the Executive Board is scheduled to occur within six (6) weeks of the filing of the Petition for Removal, in which case the matter shall be considered at the regularly scheduled meeting.
6. The Executive Board shall review the Petition for Removal for conformity to this policy and determine by a preponderance of the evidence and by majority vote whether or not the Petition for Removal warrants further investigation. Should the Executive Board find the petition frivolous or without merit, no further action shall be taken on the Petition for Removal. If the petition is found to be untrue or frivolous, the Executive Board may refer the matter to the Ecclesiastical Commission on Judiciary Affairs for appropriate action against the petitioner.
7. Upon the finding that the Petition for Removal has merit, the Executive Board shall refer the matter to the Board, Agency or Committee unless such body has already considered the matter. The Board or Committee shall report back to the Executive Board within ninety (90) days of its findings and actions. If the actions of the Board, Agency or Committee are satisfactory to the Executive Board of Synod, then the issue is closed.
8. Should the Executive Board by majority vote not be satisfied with the Board's, Agency's or Committee's report and actions, it shall refer the matter to the Ecclesiastical Commission on Judiciary Affairs for investigation and adjudication on the merits of the case.
9. Should the Ecclesiastical Commission on Judiciary Affairs, by majority vote, approve the Petition for Removal, the member is considered "removed for cause" and shall be immediately ineligible to participate furthermore in the work of the Board, Agency, or Committee unless and until such time as the General Synod shall reverse the decision of the Executive Board on appeal from the member removed for cause.
10. The member "removed for cause" shall have the right of appeal to the General Synod at its annual meeting. Said appeal shall be in writing and filed with the Principal Clerk of the ARPC within 10 days of the final adjudication of the matter by the Ecclesiastical Commission.

PRESBYTERY BOUNDARIES

(Revised Synod 2018)

In extenuating circumstances, the General Synod may assign a church to a presbytery regardless of the established geographical areas. Except for those circumstances the geographical areas are as follows:

Canadian Presbytery - Constituted to be effective January 4, 2004, it was formed by the division of Northeast Presbytery at the Canadian Border and includes the Canadian provinces of New Brunswick, Newfoundland, Nova Scotia, Ontario, Prince Edward Island, and Quebec.

Catawba Presbytery - Constituted in 1919 by the division of First Presbytery. It now includes all of the state of South Carolina, except for the western counties of Abbeville, Aiken, Allendale, Anderson, Barnwell, Edgefield, Greenville, Greenwood, Laurens, McCormick, Newberry, Oconee, Pickens, Saluda, Spartanburg, and Union; the state of Louisiana; and the state of Texas.

First Presbytery - Constituted in October 1800, it was formed by the division of the Associate Reformed Presbytery of the Carolinas and Georgia. As of 2019, it now includes Surry, Yadkin, Davies, Rowan, Cabarrus and Union counties along with all North Carolina counties westward, and the following counties in Appalachia: Kentucky - Bell, Clay, Harlan, Knott, Knox, Laurel, Leslie, Letcher, Perry, and Whitley; Tennessee - Anderson, Blount, Campbell, Carter, Claiborne, Cocke, Grainger, Greene, Hamblen, Hancock, Hawkins, Jefferson, Johnson, Knox, Sevier, Sullivan, Unicoi, Union, and Washington; Virginia - Lee, Russell, Scott, Washington, and Wise.

Florida Presbytery - Constituted October 16, 1963 by the division of Second Presbytery. It now includes the state of Florida.

Grace Presbytery - To be constituted in January 2019, will be defined geographically as including the following North Carolina counties: Stokes, Forsyth, Davidson, Montgomery, Richmond and all other NC counties to the east.

Mississippi Valley Presbytery - Constituted in 1931 when the Memphis and Louisville Presbyteries merged. It now includes the states of Arkansas, Kentucky, Mississippi, Missouri, and the western part of the state of Tennessee west of the Tennessee River.

Northeast Presbytery - Constituted January 1, 1987, it was formed by the division of Virginia Presbytery. It now includes the states of Connecticut, Delaware, Maryland, Maine, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, and Vermont; Washington, DC and in Virginia the County of Fairfax, the independent city of Alexandria, the independent city of Falls Church, and in West Virginia those counties north of the southern boundaries of Preston, Taylor, Harrison, Doddridge, Ritchie and Wood counties. (2012 Synod)

Second Presbytery - Constituted in October 1800, it was formed by the division of the Associate Reformed Presbytery of the Carolinas and Georgia. It now includes the state of Georgia and the Western South Carolina counties of Abbeville, Aiken, Allendale, Anderson, Barnwell, Edgefield, Greenville, Greenwood, Laurens, McCormick, Newberry, Oconee, Pickens, Saluda, Spartanburg, and Union.

Tennessee-Alabama Presbytery - Constituted in 1937, it now includes the state of Alabama, the eastern two-thirds of the state of Tennessee east of the Tennessee River except for the counties of Anderson, Blount, Campbell, Carter, Claiborne, Cocke, Grainger, Greene, Hamblen, Hancock, Hawkins, Jefferson, Johnson, Knox, Sevier, Sullivan, Unicoi, Union, and Washington, and the Cleveland Street Church, New Albany, Mississippi.

Virginia Presbytery – Constituted in 1854, it includes the State of Virginia, except for the counties of Fairfax, Lee, Russell, Scott, Washington, and Wise, the independent city of Alexandria, the independent city of Falls Church, and the State of West Virginia except for the counties north of the southern boundaries of Preston, Taylor, Harrison, Doddridge, Ritchie, and Wood Counties.

RULES OF ORDER

It has been said that if there were no rules or established customs to guide an assembly of persons, and if each could talk on any subject as long and as many times as he pleased, and if all could talk at the same time, it would be impossible in most cases to ascertain their deliberate judgment on any particular matter.* Certainly, therefore, important business such as that relating to our Lord and Saviour should be carried out with decency and order as the Apostle Paul has indicated.

The following Rules of Order are written primarily for use during the meeting of Synod, but are to be observed by all Courts of the Church, insofar as they may be applicable.

- I. Constituting the Court. At the time appointed, the Moderator, or his alternate, shall call the court to order and the Court shall be constituted with prayer. At the opening service the retiring moderator will present a sermon, or if he is a ruling elder, will present an appropriate address. At the first business session the Principal Clerk shall constitute the Roll of Voting Members in a manner approved by the Court. For the meeting of the General Synod, the roll shall be prepared in the following manner:
 - A. Each Presbytery shall submit a list of ministers who are to be enrolled as voting members for the current meeting according to the Form of Government, Chapter XIII, C. Ministers must register at Synod's Registration to be recorded as present on the Official Roll of Synod.
 - B. Each elder-representative shall present from his Session a statement signed by the moderator and clerk, in the form specified in Chapter XIII, C, 6, Form of Government.
 - C. Former Moderators of Synod who are in attendance at Synod, and who are in good standing as members of an Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church are granted the right to sit, deliberate and vote at subsequent meetings of the General Synod. (2012 Synod)
- II. Officers of the Court: The officers of the Court shall be the Moderator, Vice moderator, a Principal Clerk, a Reading Clerk, a Bill Clerk, an Assistant Clerk, and a Parliamentarian.
 - A. Election of Officers.
 1. Moderator. A Moderator-elect shall be elected by the Court for a specific period. The Moderator-elect must be a Teaching or Ruling Elder and shall be nominated from the floor, and shall previously have assured his nominator of his willingness to serve, if elected. Voting shall be by secret ballot if more than one person is nominated. In the absence of any nomination from the floor, the Moderator will submit a name to the Court. In the event of the Moderator's death or his inability to perform the duties of his office within the first 180 days of his term of service, the Vice Moderator shall automatically become Moderator and shall nominate a Vice Moderator to the Executive Board of Synod which shall, acting on behalf of the General Synod, elect a Vice Moderator to fill the unexpired term. The records of the Synod shall certify that the initially elected Moderator and his successor, the Vice Moderator, were both Moderators of Synod for the year they served.
 2. Vice Moderator. A Vice moderator-elect shall be elected by the Court for a specific period one year before service. The Vice moderator-elect must be a Teaching or Ruling Elder and shall be nominated from the floor, and shall previously have assured his nominator of his willingness to serve, if elected. Voting shall be by secret ballot if more than one person is nominated. The Moderator-elect shall be allowed to submit a name to the Court. The Vice moderator-elect shall become the Moderator-elect in the event of the death, resignation, or other incapacities of the Moderator-elect.
 3. Clerks. The clerks will be nominated to the body by the Committee on Nominations and upon election serve for a specific period.

4. Parliamentary. The Parliamentary shall be nominated by the Committee on Nominations and elected for a three (3) year period. He may succeed himself.
- B. Duties of Officers. (These duties are limited to duties during Court Sessions.)
 1. Moderator.
 - a. Open the Session. At the hour appointed, the Moderator shall take the chair, call the house to order, and open the meeting with prayer, unless a worship service has been held. If a quorum is present, the Court shall proceed to business.
 - b. Announce the business before the Court in the order in which it is to be acted upon, keeping in mind any "order of the day."
 - c. State and put all questions properly brought before the Court.
 - d. Take the vote and announce the result.
 - e. Decide all questions of order, subject to an appeal to the house by any two members. He may, without appeal, submit the question to the Court.
 - f. Appoint Moderator's Committees, subject to the approval of the Court.
 2. Vice Moderator. The Vice moderator shall preside in the absence of the Moderator, and assist in his official duties if desired.
 3. Principal Clerk. It shall be the duty of the Principal Clerk to keep a roll of the members and call it whenever required by the Court; to record the proceedings; to receive and record documents acted upon by the Court; to make record of all unfinished business to come before the Court; to sign all orders and official papers; to provide a presbytery a written report on disposition of its memorial to include a statement, if any, from the Moderator's Committee; and to publish the minutes of the proceedings.
 4. Reading Clerk. It will be the responsibility of the Reading Clerk to present the business to the Court in the order determined by the Moderator and agenda. In the absence of a directive from the Moderator or an order of the day, the Reading Clerk will determine the order in which business is to be taken from the table and presented to the court. The Reading Clerk will present reports to the body, except in those cases where the reports are presented by particular representatives of a board or committee.
 5. Bill Clerk. The Bill Clerk will receive, record, and distribute matters to come before the Court. It is his responsibility to see that papers and reports referred are placed in the hands of the proper committees, and properly returned by such committees.
 6. Assistant Clerk. In the absence of any clerk, the Assistant Clerk will perform the functions assigned to the clerk in absence.
 7. Parliamentary. The Parliamentary should be a person with expert knowledge of the rules and use of adopted parliamentary procedures. He should be a person who is impartial, systematic, knowledgeable, and reliable. He should see to it that the business procedures are carried out according to these Rules of Order. He should call attention to an improper procedure and on request advise the Moderator on procedural matters.
- III. Quorum. No business may be conducted without the presence of a quorum as prescribed in the Form of Government. If a quorum has not assembled at the hour appointed, and if two or more members are present, the Court may adjourn to a set time to provide an opportunity for a quorum to assemble.
- IV. Moderator's Committees. At the first business session and immediately following unfinished business, the Moderator shall appoint committees to consider the reports of boards and records and reports of lower courts. These shall be referred without reading unless there is a request for reading. The Moderator is encouraged to direct memorials which address concerns that have been assigned to a particular board of the General Synod to the Moderator's Committee which will be considering that board's report. Reports of committees shall be considered by the Court as a whole, unless referred by the Moderator to a moderator's committee.

- A. Membership. The Moderator will appoint the members, subject to the approval of the Court, and will designate a chairman and a vice chairman. Voting members of the Committee must be voting members of the Court. Advisors and observers may be appointed by the Moderator, subject to the approval of the Court.
 - B. Duties. Moderator's committees are to carefully consider and make recommendations on all matters referred to them. Moderator's committees are not to change or alter the content of the matters referred to them. In those circumstances where the moderator's committee recommends that a Memorial NOT BE ADOPTED or where the moderator's committee recommends SUBSTANTIVE ALTERATIONS, the moderator's committee shall draft a statement explaining its actions and submit the statement with its official report.
 - C. Discharge. Action of the Court on a report from the moderator's committee discharges the committee. If the report is recommitted, the committee is to reconvene and resubmit recommendations until such report is accepted by the Court.
- V. Order of Business. Subsequent to the opening service described elsewhere, and following prayer or worship, the following order of business is to be observed:
- A. Declaration of Quorum
 - B. Presentation of Minutes from the previous session
 - C. Special Order of the Day, if there be such
 - D. Unfinished Business
 - E. New Business
- VI. Matters to be Considered by the Court.
- A. Reports from boards, commissions, standing committees, and special committees of the Court and reports and memorials from lower courts will be filed with the Bill Clerk through Central Services no later than six weeks prior to the first business session. These reports should be submitted in editable electronic form by the Chairman, Secretary, or Clerk. These communications will be distributed by Central Services electronically and/or in print one month prior to the first business session and considered in the ordinary routine of business.
 - B. Reports of boards, committees, commissions and memorials of presbyteries which are received by Central Services too late to be distributed in print prior to the meeting will be distributed electronically not later than two weeks before the first business session. Matters received directly by the Court will be filed with the Bill Clerk at the Call for Reports, to be considered in the ordinary routine of business only if approved by a two-thirds majority vote.
 - C. All other matters to be considered by the Court must be brought before the assembly by a motion of a member to that effect and seconded and then announced by the Moderator. If the matter is not to be considered at the time of the motion, it must be reduced to writing and submitted to the Bill Clerk. If the matter is to be considered by the Court at the time of the motion, the motion must be reduced to writing and submitted to the Principal Clerk. (This applies only to main motions and motions to amend, to include substitute motions.)
 - D. All requests for funding from the unrestricted funds of Synod are expected to be presented to the Board of Stewardship in time for the Board to give careful consideration to the request and to make recommendation in its report to the General Synod. Requests brought before the General Synod that have not been considered by the Board of Stewardship will be referred to the Board of Stewardship for consideration and for reporting its recommendation at the next meeting of the General Synod. Emergency requests may be made a matter of business at that meeting of the General Synod by two-thirds of the representatives present and voting and shall be referred to the chairman of the Board of Stewardship or in his absence the Treasurer of Synod or the administrative officer of the Board of Stewardship for review and comment prior to a decision of the court.

- VII. Deliberations of the Court. Matters to be presented to the Court which were submitted to the Bill Clerk will be presented to the Court by the Reading Clerk or if they so desire, by a member of the committee or board making such report. Matters not considered by moderator's committees will be read to the Court while matters considered by the moderator's committees will have only the Report of the Moderator's Committee read, unless the moderator's committee or the Court determines that the original report be read. Following reading, the person presenting the report will make a motion that the Report be approved. Debate may then ensue. Other deliberations of the Court will be by motion and second as per paragraph VI, C.
- A. Motions, General Classification. Motions range from the "Main Motion" which is the lowest in rank to "To Fix the Time to Which to Adjourn," the highest. Motions fall into four (4) general classifications.
1. Main Motions. The object is to introduce business, such as accept or adopt reports and ratify or confirm action. No main motion can be made when any other question is before the Court. It is debatable, takes precedence of nothing, and yields to all privileged, incidental, and subsidiary motions. Motions to adopt a report are main motions. The "Motion to Reconsider" is a main motion and can be made only by one who voted on the prevailing side. Anyone may second the motion. The "Motion to Reconsider" is undebatable. If the motion is carried, the original motion is again open to discussion and vote. No question can be twice reconsidered unless it was materially amended after its first reconsideration. Certain affirmative votes and certain negative votes cannot be reconsidered.
 2. Subsidiary Motions. These are such as are applied to other motions for the purpose of most appropriately disposing of them. They take precedent of a main motion and must be decided before the main motion can be acted upon. They yield to privileged and incidental questions and are as follows (being arranged in their order of precedence among themselves):
 - a. Lay on the Table. The object is to postpone the subject in such a way that it can be taken up at any time, and if decided in the affirmative on the main motion or any amendment or substitute, remove the whole subject from before the Court until it is taken up again. This motion is undebatable and unamendable and may be applied to main motions, to questions of privilege, to specific orders of the day (but not as a whole), to appeals, and to reconsider when immediately pending. It cannot be applied to unfinished business or formal reports of boards, committees, or reports or memorials from lower courts. Business laid on the table should be brought up by the clerk when the docket is cleared but only prior to the adjournment of the General Synod.
 - b. The Previous Question. This is the name given to a motion "to close debate now, stop further motions to amend, and proceed to vote on the immediately pending question." It requires a second, is undebatable, and is unamendable. It does yield to privileged and incidental motions and to the motion to "Lay on the Table." A 2/3 vote is required.
 - c. Postpone to a Set Time. The object is to set a time when a matter must be considered. It requires a second and is debatable only as to propriety of postponing. It may be amended as to time and as to special or general order. If a matter is postponed to a certain day, it becomes a "General Order" of business and majority vote carries it. It can only be considered on the day appointed when all business has been disposed of. If the business is "Postponed to a Set or Certain Time," it becomes a "Special Order," requires a 2/3 vote to carry, and must be considered at the appointed time. Motions that hold over are "Previous Questions," "Table," privileged motions, and incidental motions.
 - d. Commit. Object is to place business in the hands of a few. The motion requires a second and is debatable, as to propriety of committing, and is amendable. Motions that hold over are all motions except "Postpone Indefinitely" and "Main Motions." Majority vote is required. Instructions may be given to a committee any time before it submits its report by majority vote. It may be "Reconsidered" if the committee has not begun consideration of the business.

- e. Amend. Object is to change or modify. It requires a second and is debatable, but debate must be confined to the amendment. It may be amended. All motions, except "Postpone Indefinitely" and "Main Motions" hold over a motion to amend. A majority vote is required, and it may be "Reconsidered." A "Substitute Motion" is an "Amendment."
 - f. Postpone Indefinitely. Object is to kill a motion, and requires a second. It is debatable and opens up "Main Motion" to debate. It is unamendable and cannot have any subsidiary motion applied to it except "Previous Question" and motion to "Limit or Extend Debate." All motions except "Main Question" hold over motion to "Postpone Indefinitely." It can be reconsidered.
3. Incidental Motions are such as arise out of other motions, and, consequently take precedence of, and are to be decided before, the questions which gave rise to them. They yield to privileged questions and cannot be amended. Excepting on appeal, they are undebatable. They are:
- a. Appeal. Any member, with a second, may appeal from any decision of the Moderator. After debate, as allowed by Robert's Rules of Order, the question shall be put in this form: "Shall the decision of the Moderator be sustained?"
 - b. Objection to the Consideration of a Motion. An objection can be made to the consideration or any main motion, but only when it is first introduced. It can be made while another member has the floor and does not require a second. It cannot be debated or amended or have any subsidiary motion applied to it. When a motion is made and any member objects to its consideration, the Moderator shall immediately put the question, "Will the Court consider it?" If decided in the negative by a 2/3 vote, the whole matter is dismissed for that meeting.
 - c. Suspension of the Rules. This motion is not debatable and cannot be amended, nor can any subsidiary motion be applied to it, nor a vote on it be reconsidered. The rules of the assembly shall not be suspended except for a definite purpose, and by a 2/3 vote.
 - d. Other Incidental Motions include "Reading Papers," "Withdraw a Motion," motions relating to voting and nomination. They yield to "Table" generally and to privileged motions. They take precedence of the motions they affect.
4. Privileged Motions. These are motions which take precedence of all other questions whatever, and on account of this very privilege, they are undebatable, except when relating to the rights of the Court or its members, as otherwise they could be made use of so as to seriously interrupt business. They are as follows, being arranged in their order of precedence among themselves.
- a. To Fix the Time to Which to Adjourn
 - b. Adjourn
 - c. Questions Relating to the Rights and Privileges of the Court or Any of Its Members. The object is to get the attention of the Chair at once, to ask a question, to attend to some matter of business that cannot wait. Question cannot interrupt voting or verifying the vote. It is undebatable, unamendable, and may be reconsidered.
 - d. Orders of the Day. A call on the "Orders of the Day" takes precedence of every other matter, excepting "To Reconsider," and the three preceding, to which latter three it yields. It is not debatable nor can it be amended.

B. Debate.

1. Addressing the Moderator. When any member desires to speak, he must rise and address the Moderator, and may not proceed until the Moderator recognizes him and announces his name.
2. Obtaining the Floor. The member who first addresses the Moderator is to be granted the floor. If two or more address him at the same time, the one who is farthest from the chair is to be given the floor. The one who fails to obtain the floor is to be granted it next in order. The chair will refrain from recognizing a member who has risen and remained standing while another member is speaking, provided anyone else rises after the speaker has yielded the floor. EXCEPTIONS: The mover of a resolution, or in the case of official reports the chairman or some other member of the body making the report, is entitled to the floor immediately after the motion is announced, if he desires it; and when two members in succession have been heard on the same side of a question, the Moderator is to grant the floor to some member of the other side, if any member desires it.
3. Decorum of Speakers and Attention of Members. Every member when speaking shall first address himself to the Moderator, and then speak to the house in general, but shall not address any member individually except through the Moderator; he shall treat all members with decorum and respect, and shall attend closely in his speech to the question under consideration. Members of the Court shall attend closely to the business in hand, and shall not engage in private conversation or in anything that may cause confusion or disorder, while any member is speaking or the Moderator is taking a vote.
4. Debate by Officers of the Court. The Moderator may speak on questions of order without leaving the chair. However, when he would express his views on any subject under debate, he shall call on the Vice moderator to fill the chair and take the floor as other members of the Court. The other officers of the Court may speak on questions of order when requested by the Moderator and when necessary to perform their duties. However, to speak to subjects under debate, the officer shall call on the Assistant Clerk to perform the duties of his office and take the floor as other members of the Court.
5. Calls to Order. If a speaker acts in any respect in a disorderly manner, it shall be the right of any member and the duty of the Moderator to call him to order; and when thus called to order, he shall at once take his seat, until it is determined whether or not he was out of order, or until he is given leave by the Court to proceed.
6. Opportunity to Debate. Before putting any debatable question to a vote, the Moderator shall first give an opportunity for remarks.
7. End of Debate. When the "Call on the Question" and "The Call for the Previous Question" have been decided in the affirmative, or when the Moderator has begun taking the vote, no further debate or remarks shall be admitted, unless there has evidently been a mistake; in which case, the mistake shall be rectified and the Moderator shall begin to take the vote.

C. Voting.

1. Presenting a Motion to the Court for Vote. In placing a motion before the Court for vote, the Moderator shall repeat the motion, and if there should be any cause for doubt, the result of the vote should be repeated. The motion shall be put in the following form, "All who are in favor of this motion will say aye"; and after the affirmative is expressed, "All who are opposed will say no." The Moderator will immediately announce the vote.
2. Division. If there is any doubt as to the result, the Moderator or any two (2) members (motion and second) may call for a division. In that case, the Moderator shall repeat the motion and require first the ayes and then the noes to rise and be counted, and shall pronounce accordingly. The vote shall be taken by officers of the Court.
3. Recording of Votes.
 - a. Should one third of the members present wish to have votes recorded, the roll shall be called and vote of each member recorded in the minutes. Those not voting will be counted with the majority, but recorded as not voting in the minutes. To have the vote recorded an “Incidental Motion” should be made and seconded and the question put to the Court should be “Should the vote be recorded?” Unless 2/3 vote negative, the votes shall be recorded.

- b. In lieu of a roll call vote, any member of the court, who had the right to vote on a question, is entitled to have his name recorded in the Minutes indicating what his vote was. He may support his signature with a brief respectful statement setting forth the reason for his vote.
4. Vote of Moderator. In a vote taken by ballot or by roll call, he shall vote with the other members. In all other cases he shall have the casting vote if the house is equally divided. If he is unwilling to decide, he shall put the question a second time, and if the result shall be the same and he still declines to vote, the question shall be lost.
5. Majority Vote. In all cases not otherwise prescribed, a majority of the votes cast shall be sufficient for adoption or election.

VIII. Miscellaneous Procedures of the Court.

- A. Executive Sessions. All courts have the right to sit in executive session on any business which in their judgment ought not to be made a matter of public discussion.
- B. Official Roll of Synod. The official roll of the Court shall be constituted when the delegates sign the official enrollment form at Synod’s Registration Office. Members are encouraged to remain for all proceedings of the Court. Should a member find it necessary to miss a portion of the Synod meeting, he shall sign out at Synod’s Registration Office.
- C. Recording of Minutes. Minutes are a record of proceeding, and may be corrected at any time, without reconsidering the vote that approved them. Minutes should record all “Main Motions” (not withdrawn); name of maker of “Main Motions”; “Points of Order”; “Appeals” (whether lost or sustained); all other motions not lost or withdrawn; hour of meeting and adjournment; and roll call vote. Main Motions are interpreted to include official correspondence and reports submitted to this body for its consideration. All reports are to be printed in full in order to preserve the integrity of the reports. All actions of the General Synod which are intended to be of a binding nature are to be placed within the framework of the official documents of the church.
- D. Final Adjournment. Before the final adjournment the minutes of that day’s session shall be read and adopted, the minutes of the meeting as a whole approved, the roll called and the names of those present recorded. Then, after prayer and the singing of praise, the Moderator shall declare the court adjourned to meet at the appointed time and place, and shall then pronounce the apostolic benediction.
- E. Changes to Associate Reformed Presbyterian Retirement Plan. Proposed changes to the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Retirement Plan which are not submitted by the Board of Benefits must be referred to that Board for study and recommendation.
- F. Commitment of Synod’s Operating Reserve. Proposed commitments of Synod’s operating funds which would reduce the operating reserve below 6.5% of the anticipated funds for allocation shall be referred to the Board of Stewardship for study and recommendation.

IX. Amendment of Rules. Amendments to the Rules of Order shall be proposed by the General Synod to the presbyteries and must be approved by a majority of all those voting in all the presbyteries. The General Synod shall certify the vote at its next meeting.

X. Cases Unprovided For. All cases unprovided for in the foregoing Rules of Order are to be governed by the general principles of parliamentary law as per Robert’s Rules of Order.
