LEARN NEW WAYS TO CREATE A DYNAMIC LIFE FILLED WITH confidence, enthusiasm, and vitality using the life-changing principals found in the universal laws, co-creative forces, and the Edgar Cayce readings.

We're not passive observers of life, adrift like a feather in the wind—we actively, although often unconsciously—create and manifest the people, actions, and activities that come into our lives. But fortunately for us, we know, as Cayce said, that "thoughts are things" and "mind is the builder" and we can use our conscious minds and higher selves to create new positive outcomes, relationships, and life circumstances! By changing our thoughts and using the law of attraction we can believe in and achieve our goals for any aspect of our lives:

- improving finances and generating new forms of income
- mending relationships and attracting fulfilling new friendships
- finding meaningful and rewarding work
- renewing health and creating wellness
- manifesting a more positive world around us

Plus, we'll take a look at the power of astrology for predicting the future, so you can get a sense of what the New Year has in store for YOU!
