Title: The Beauty of Ashura Uprising

Author(s): Yadu'llah Sepehri

Finding source: Research No: 89-279-1 GUASNR

Keywords: Imam Hussein in Karbala, The Islamic Revolution, Enjoining the good and forbidding the evil, Reform

Highlights

The model for the revolution that will stand for justice, even non-Muslim communities and Taking lessons from Ashura uprising in order to live out the pages that after the death of the Prophet was forgotten. Knowledge of Imam Hussein uprising of the people and shed blood in the veins of dead people and awaken them to move and prowling in the community and show embody Ashura religious belief sand human nature in the most difficult moments in life that can be adhered to the teachings of religion and human traits.
Introduction (Hypothesis and aims)

Since the events of Ashura, a revolutionary uprising movement is that it has been set on the basis of future and Imam Hussein (AS) for the revival of religion. Grandfather Prophet Muhammad raised to the essence of religion in society is established again. It is the uprising asleep and unaware of the path will lead to justice. It could be a good model for the resurrection of justice in the world. The purpose of this research project is to clarify the angles of the uprising up rising Ashvrakh Thtzybayy model for the future on the basis of the shape.

Importance

Religion is important to choose the beauty of Ashura uprising. It is to identify issues affecting the direction and strength of the enemies and to submit to the tyranny to be clear. Imam Hussein (AS) and his resurrection are as an ideal model of society. Imam Hussain (AS) is first as a social reformer and as a religious reformer was able to accomplish their mission as well. Islamic Revolution in Iran is a perfect example of a model of the uprising and its route is to address the ultimate goal of Ashura uprising influenced.

Other Information (including tables and figures)

Ashura uprising huge transformation that is itself subject for the betterment of the popular uprising in the community and bring people to have the honor, dignity and freedom of the mission of Imam Hussain (AS) and his resurrection. Ashura would have the luxury of idealism and formalism live messenger is faded and old messages, Ashura was known for reformation and revival. Imam Hussain (AS) is first as a social reformer and as a religious reformer was able to accomplish their mission as well. Islamic Revolution in Iran is a perfect example of a model of the uprising and its route is to address the ultimate goal of Ashura uprising influenced.