

Each chapter ends with a "Take a Stand" section and Suggestions for Further Reading.

Preface

List of Boxes

List of Maps

Chapter 1: What is the Bible? And Why Is It So Hard to Understand?

Why Study the Bible?

What is the Bible?

Putting the Bible on the Map

Challenges for Studying the Bible

Conclusion

Excursus

Chapter 2: The Book of Genesis

The Contents of Genesis and the Problems They Pose

Authorship: Who Wrote the Pentateuch?

Oral Traditions and Cultural Parallels

Conclusion

Chapter 3: From Egypt to the Promised Land: Exodus to Deuteronomy

The Book of Exodus

The Law of Moses (Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers)

The Book of Numbers

The Book of Deuteronomy

Chapter 4: The Deuteronomistic History: Joshua to 2 Kings

The Deuteronomistic History

The Book of Joshua

The Book of Judges

1 and 2 Samuel

1 and 2 Kings

Chapter 5: The Early Israelite Prophets

The Rise of the Prophets

Amos of Tekoa

Isaiah of Jerusalem

Jeremiah

Hosea

Micah

Zephaniah

Habakkuk

Chapter 6: The Historians and Prophets of Exile and Return

Ezra and Nehemiah

Exilic and Post-Exilic Prophets

Second Isaiah
Joel
Obadiah
Haggai
Zechariah
Third Isaiah
Malachi
The Later History of Judea

Chapter 7: The Poets and Story Tellers of Ancient Israel

The Nature of Hebrew Poetry
The Book of Psalms
The Book of Lamentations
The Song of Songs
Storytellers in Ancient Israel
Ruth
Esther
Jonah
Daniel 1-6
1 and 2 Chronicles

Chapter 8: Wisdom and Apocalyptic Literature

Introduction to the Wisdom Literature
Proverbs
Job
Ecclesiastes
Apocalyptic Literature

Chapter 9: The World of Jesus and His Followers

One Remarkable Life
The Greco-Roman World
Judaism in the Times of Jesus
Other Jewish Literature of the Period: The Deuterocanonical or Apocryphal Books
Putting the New Testament and Early Christianity on the Map

Chapter 10: The Synoptic Gospels: Matthew, Mark, and Luke

The Storyline of the Synoptic Gospels
The Synoptic Problem
The Gospels as Biographies
The Gospel of Mark
The Gospel of Matthew
The Gospel of Luke
The Synoptic Gospels and the Problem of History

Chapter 11: The Gospel of John, Later Gospels, and the Historical Jesus

The Gospel of John

The Other Gospels
The Historical Jesus
Jesus the Apocalyptic Prophet

Chapter 12: The Life and Letters of Paul

Problems in the Study of Paul
A Brief Biography of Paul
1 Thessalonians
1 Corinthians
2 Corinthians
Galatians
Phillipians
Philemon
Romans
Conclusion

Chapter 13: The Acts of the Apostles and the Deutero-Pauline Epistles

Paul During and After the New Testament
The Acts of the Apostles
The Deutero-Pauline Epistles
2 Thessalonians
Colossians
Ephesians
The Pastoral Epistles

Chapter 14: The General Epistles and the Book of Revelation

The Letter to the Hebrews
EXCURSUS: Jews and Christians in the Ancient World
The Letter of James
1 Peter
EXCURSUS: The Persecution of the Early Christians
2 Peter
1, 2, and 3 John
Jude
EXCURSUS: Orthodoxy and Heresy in Earliest Christianity
The Apocalypse of John

Chapter 15: Appendix. The Canon and Text of the Bible

The Canon of the Hebrew Bible
The Canon of the New Testament
The Text of the Hebrew Bible
The Text of the New Testament

Glossary

Credits

Index