

Powerful Pages Book Contract

This contract has been created because _____ has shown interest in participating in the spring 2020 Powerful Pages program. The Student Engagement and Leadership Center has developed the following requirements to allow participants to borrow and potentially obtain copies of this semester's book, "How I Resist: Activism and Hope for a New Generation"

The participant agrees to do the following:

1. Attend a minimum of four (4) of the five (5) session dates for the program.
2. Participate fully in any activities that are planned for meetings as well as contribute to any relevant dialogues or conversations.
3. Be mindful in checking their UTEP email and Minetracker group account for updates and notes.

Participants that choose to sign this Book Contract will put down a deposit of $10.00 in order to receive a copy of "How I Resist". At the end of the program, those that have met the above requirements will be able to keep their copy of the book as well as be refunded their deposit. If for whatever reason the participant is unable to meet the above stated requirements, they will be required to return their borrowed copy but will receive their deposit back. Please note that copies returned must be in the same condition they were given in, and that any damages will result in a forfeit of the participant's deposit.

The participant hereby agrees to abide by the terms of this Book Contract.
