

Differences

(Ages 4-5)

Adoff, Arnold. Black is Brown is Tan. Illus. by Emily McCully. New York City: HarperCollins Publishers, 1973.

- Using poetry, this book addresses what it means to be part of a biracial family.

Doudna, Kelly. Around the World series. Edina, Minnesota: ABDO Publishing Company. (ex. Clothing Around the World. 2004.) (Ages 3-5)

- This series explores human differences around the world.

Morris, Ann. Hats, Hats, Hats. Photos. by Ken Heyman. 1st ed. New York: Lothrop, Lee, & Shepard Books, c1989. (Ages 2-5)

- The book has photos of hats around the world.

Morris, Ann. Houses and Homes. Photos. by Ken Heyman. New York: Lothrop, Lee & Shepard Books, 1992.

- This book discusses the different types of houses around the world.

Simon, Norma. All Kinds of Children. Illus. by Diane Paterson. Morton Grove, Illinois: Albert Whitman & Company, 1999.

- Poetry describes children and their families around the world

Swain, Gwennyth. Bedtime! Minneapolis: First Avenue Editions, 2002.

- Portrays where and how children sleep around the world.

Wittbold, Maureen K. Let's Talk About When Your Parent Doesn't Speak English. The Let's Talk Library. New York: The Rosen Publishing Group's PowerKids Press, 1997.

- The book discusses issues and feelings for children whose parents do not speak English fluently.