

CEE 410 Traffic Engineering Fundamentals

Instructor

Dr. Mike Lowry, PTP
Engineering Physics Building, EPB 115D
208-885-0139
mlowry at uidaho.edu

Course Description

General review of the fundamentals of traffic engineering, including their relationship to transportation operations management and planning, with emphasis on calculations and procedures in the Highway Capacity Manual; field surveys and data analysis. Prerequisite: CEE 320 and basic statistics or permission from the instructor.

Contact the instructor to find out when the course will be offered next.