

31st Annual Student Leadership Learning Outcomes:

Foundational Principles:

- Leadership Development
- Organization Development and Planning
- Engaging Relationships and Experiences*
- Community Building and Advocacy*

By attending and actively participating in the Annual Student Leadership Conference, students will

1. Recognize PERSONAL COMPETENCIES and strategies to develop ORGANIZATIONS
  - a. Obtain and strengthen leadership skills such as conflict and risk management, communication, teamwork, time management, proactive event planning, goal setting and risk taking.
  - b. Utilize internal practices that support organizational sustainability
2. Describe better their ability to work with others and how their personal LEADERSHIP IDENTITY relates
  - a. Develop an even fuller understanding of themselves through sessions, active engagement, and interactions with others
3. Develop new engaging relationships and participate in a community building experience
  - a. Meet new students, faculty/staff and possibly create friendships or partnerships for the future
  - b. Participate in idea-sharing as it relates to their experiences as a student leader and organizational member/leader
  - c. Exposure of new ideas and ways to partner with others, recognize members, and further the mission of their student organization
4. Cultivate further ideas that continue to BUILD COMMUNITY on and off campus
  - a. Identify ways to advocate for others and responses to issues surrounding UC and the Cincinnati community
  - b. Recognize disparities and strategies to influence in our community
