Out-of-State Approved Programs

If you have completed a state-approved teaching program in another state, you may submit an application for a Virginia teaching license. You may obtain the application from the following Web address:

<http://www.doe.virginia.gov/teaching/licensure/application.pdf>.

You will find the application forms and directions at this site. Since there is currently no online application, you will need to print the appropriate forms and submit them by mail.

You may review information regarding the professional teacher's assessment requirement in Virginia at the following Web address:

http://www.doe.virginia.gov/teaching/licensure/prof_teacher_assessment.pdf

Please refer to the information regarding the child abuse and recognition requirement for Virginia on our Web site at the following address:

http://www.doe.virginia.gov/teaching/licensure/child_abuse_training.shtml.

You will need to complete certification or training in emergency first aid, cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR), and use of automated external defibrillators (AED). For more information, see the Frequently Asked Questions document at the following address:
