International Student Financial Statement Freshman and Transfer Admission 2016-2017

Office of Admission-MS 17 • P.O. Box 1892 • Houston, Texas 77251-1892 • www.rice.edu/admission

This Financial Statement is required for undergraduate applicants who live outside the U.S. and those living in the U.S. with a valid visa. International students not requesting need-based financial aid must demonstrate ability to finance their education at Rice; those requesting need-based financial aid must provide information about their family financial status. Whether applying for need-based aid or not, all international applicants must complete this Financial Statement and supply the appropriate supporting documentation (in English and converted to U.S. dollars).

Your application will not be reviewed until this form, along with all required documentation, completed to our satisfaction, is returned to Rice.

The preferred method of application submission is via your Rice Admission Student Portal using the Upload Materials tool. If submission via your Student Portal is not an option, please return materials via airmail, express mail or fax to expedite processing and ensure you meet the appropriate deadlines.

STUDENT EXPLANATION OF FINANCIAL CIRCUMSTANCES

5. In the table below, list your available sources of financial support and demonstrate how you plan to meet Rice's financial requirements and costs as determined by the Student Budget for 2016-2017. The total sum of your sources of support should equal the 2016-2017 total cost of attendance, approximately $64,000. The Student Budget is subject to change prior to fall 2017 enrollment since student fees are set at the end of each year.

Documentation (appropriate affidavits and/or scholarship awards) must also be sent with this form as proof of financial support for your first year of study. All supporting documents must be in English and converted to U.S. dollars.

Source of Support	Amount available for educational expenses
Personal, family, or sponsor's funds: (Bank affidavit confirming funds required)	$ _____
Scholarship from: _____ _____ (Include only scholarship(s) already assured. Letter(s) of award must be included with documentation.)	$ _____
TOTAL: (Amount should equal or be greater than $64,000. If not, please answer question 6 below.)	$ _____

6. If your total resources (TOTAL above) is not equal to or greater than $64,000, and you are not applying for need-based aid from Rice, how do you plan to meet the required costs for the 2017-2018 school year, and beyond? _____

Please note that your application cannot be considered for admission until you have documented the above sources of support for your first year of study with the proper certification (i.e., a bank affidavit signed by a bank official, affidavit of support from each sponsor, an official copy of each scholarship or award). The United States Consulate in your home country will require the same documentation before issuing you a student visa.

As an undergraduate international student you will not be eligible to apply for financial aid at any time during your undergraduate career, unless you apply for and receive such aid in the freshman admission process; also, you will not be permitted to work off campus (as stipulated by U.S. immigration regulations). This policy is regardless of unforeseen family difficulties, political changes in your home country, currency devaluation, etc., that may alter your financial situation. PLEASE NOTE: Rice students are required to pay each semester's bill prior to the beginning of the semester.

I, (print name) _____, certify that the total amount of money that I have available for my first academic year of study at Rice University is $ _____. Further, I certify that the information provided above is correct and complete.
