Archway Gallery

Archway Gallery is a partnership of Houston based professional artists. The gallery is artist-owned and operated. The artists are committed to promoting art and art education within the community. Archway Gallery has been open for 40 years and has a deep and rich history.

The Houston Public Library

The Houston Metropolitan Research Center, housed in the historic Julia Ideson Building, locates, preserves, and makes available to researchers the documentary evidence of Houston's history.

The Buffalo Soldiers National Museum

The Buffalo Soldiers National Museum is the only Museum dedicated primarily to preserving the legacy and honor of the African-American soldier, in the United States of America.

The Printing Museum

The Museum promotes, preserves, and shares the knowledge of printed communication and art as the greatest contributors to the development of the civilized world and the continuing advancement of freedom and literacy.

Woodson Research Center, Fondren Library

The Center collects, organizes, preserves and describes Rice's archives, rare books, and manuscripts, including materials relating to the urban planning history of Buffalo Bayou and the integration of Rice University.

DiverseWorks

DiverseWorks commissions, produces, and presents new and daring art in all its forms through innovative collaborations that honor each artist's vision without constraint.
