

VOICE

Spring 2018

Welcome to the VOICE!

The Office of Diversity Affairs welcomes you to the VOICE of diversity on SNC's campus! By highlighting SNC's amazing faculty, staff, students, organizations, departments, events, news and more, we seek to unify the voice of diversity on our beloved campus. We invite your awareness, engagement and discussion on the various activities that support our increasingly diverse St. Norbert College.

If you have material or announcements you would like to submit for this newsletter, please email diversityaffairs@snc.edu. We want to hear from you! We cover all issues relating to diversity, including race, ethnicity, culture, gender identity, gender equality, (dis)ability and more.

Pop-up Exhibit: “A Stone of Hope: Black Experiences in the Fox Cities” - This January, the Miriam B. and James J. Mulva Library was home to a pop-up exhibit on local African-American history. On loan from the History Museum at the Castle in Appleton, the exhibit is about local African-American history from the 1700s to modern day. Read full article.

The Norman Miller Center Presents ‘Disturbing Aesthetics of Race,’ with Prof. M. Shawn Copeland- This spring, the SNC campus will be hosting M. Shawn Copeland, Ph.D., Professor of Systematic Theology from Boston College. Copeland is recognized as one of the most important influences in North America in drawing attention to issues related to the religious, cultural and social experience of African American Catholics. Student Corner: To Ecuador on a Mission - Inspirational students such as Carolina Rodriguez, class of ’19, are set to improve lives and preserve culture, and are using SNC as their launch pad. Carolina recently spent a semester in Ecuador at La Universidad de San Francisco in Cumbaya, just outside of Quito. Read full article.

Engaging Diversity at St. Norbert College - There are many things you can do to broaden your world, engage diversity and learn about new cultures, right here at SNC. The following events are offered around campus. Read full article.
