

11 RULES FROM BILL GATES

11 things they did not and will not learn in school. The "feel good" politically correct teachings created a generation of kids with no concept of reality. And how this concept sets them up for failure in the real world.

1. Life is not fair - get used to it.
2. The world won't care about your self esteem. The world will expect you to accomplish something "BEFORE you feel good about yourself."
3. You will not make $40,000.00 a year right out of high school. You won't be vice-pres. with a car phone until you earn both.
4. If you think your teacher is tough, wait until you get a boss.
5. Flipping burgers is Not beneath your dignity. Your grandparents had a different work for burger flipping - they called it opportunity.
6. If you mess up, it' s not your parents fault, so don't whine about your mistakes. Learn from them.
7. Before you were born, your parents were not as boring as they are now. They got that way from paying your bills, cleaning your clothes, and listening to you talk about how "cool" you are. So before you save the Rain Forrest from the parasites of your parents generation, try delousing the closet in your own room.
8. Your school may have done away with winner's and losers, but life has not. In some schools, they have abolished failing grades and they will give you as many times as you want - to get the right answer. This doesn't bear the slightest resemblance to anything in real life.
- 9 Life is not divided into semesters. You don't get summers off, and very few employers are interested in helping you "find yourself". Do that on your own time.
- 10 Television is not real life. In real life, people actually have to leave the coffee shop and go to jobs.
- 11 Be nice to nerds. Chances are, you will end up working for one.
