

Sentence Starting Ideas For Your Book Report

(Using these sentence starters is optional. Feel free to start your sentences in other ways as well.)

I think the author wrote this to...

I chose this topic because...

This interests me because...

The fact that interested me most was... because...

I didn't know that...

A lesson can be learned from... because...

I predict that...

I wonder...

A question that I have about... is...

This subject is related to what we are studying because...

This book is different from what I normally read because...

This (person, event, topic) reminded me of...

I can relate to this (person, event, topic) because...

(Piece of information) is an idea I would use in (situation, class, etc.) because...

The most important (quote or idea) in this book is... because...