- b. Follow rules for collegial discussions, set specific goals and deadlines, and define individual roles as needed.
- c. Pose and respond to specific questions with elaboration and detail by making comments that contribute to the topic, text, or issue under discussion.
- d. Review the key ideas expressed and demonstrate understanding of multiple perspectives through reflection and paraphrasing.

Essential Skills and Concepts:

- Prepare for discussions by reading required material
- Express yourself clearly
- Know how to incorporate evidence or information about the topic, text, or issue during the discussion
- When working in groups:
  - Know what behaviors are appropriate
  - Know the roles and the tasks associated with the role
  - Come to agreement on goals for the group and deadlines for completing the task
- Pose and respond to questions
- Contribute to the discussion by elaborating on the comments of others
- Demonstrate understanding of multiple perspectives by reflecting on the ideas expressed.
- Review key ideas discussed by paraphrasing them

Question Stems and Prompts:

- ✓ How did you prepare for today's discussion?
- ✓ What are some questions you might ask during the discussion?
- ✓ Based on what you read, what might you want to discuss more deeply with your group?
- ✓ Will your group need to designate group tasks? How will you decide what roles you will take?
- ✓ What words or phrases could you use to extend the conversation and build on another's ideas?
- ✓ What words or phrases could you use to counter someone's idea or opinion?

- ✓ What words or phrases could you use to introduce a new idea?
- ✓ In writing, review the key ideas expressed during the discussion.
