

Instructions for Filing

Application for Appointment to Office of Notary Public

Section 42-30.1-15 of the General Laws of Rhode Island, 1956, as amended

This legal document should be typed. All illegible documents will be REJECTED.

How to complete the form:

The Rhode Island Office of Notary Public is available to Rhode Island residents, non-residents who conduct business on a regular basis within the State of Rhode Island, and Attorneys and Certified Public Accountants in good standing.

All applicants are required to know the powers and duties of the Rhode Island Office of Notary Public. Prior to submitting the application, applicants should take the assessment available on our website. Educational materials are available at www.sos.ri.gov/divisions/Notary-Public. Please review RIGL 42-30.1; Executive Order 09-08; Standards of Conduct and all accompanying rules and regulations prior to remitting your application.

Application Information

1. List your full name. Neither initials alone nor nicknames will be accepted on the application or as part of the signature required on a notarial act.
2. Indicate whether you would also like to be an electronic notary. Include the name of your electronic notary solution provider and a copy of your official electronic stamp and electronic signature.
3. List your complete current residential and business address, telephone number(s) and email address.
4. Check one box only:
 - If applying as a non-resident you must provide your occupation, name of employer and business address in the State of Rhode Island.
 - If applying as an Attorney, you must provide your Bar Number and a copy of your most recent membership card to the RI Bar Association or a Certificate of Admission from the RI Supreme Court. DO NOT provide a copy of your Judicial Identification Card.
 - If applying as a Certified Public Accountant, you must provide your Certificate# and a copy of your most recent membership card issued by the RI Board of Accountancy.
5. If applicable, provide the required information regarding notary misconduct and criminal convictions pursuant to RIGL § 42-30.1-16.
6. Sign the application using the signature you will affix to documents as a Rhode Island Notary Public. Type or Print your name. An applicant may include their name suffixes such as Junior, Senior, II, III, IV or any abbreviation of these designations. An applicant may not include prefixes or titles such as "Doctor," "Reverend" or "Esquire" or any abbreviations thereof.

Oath of Office

7. All applicants must appear before a Rhode Island Notary Public to complete the Oath of Office. When completing the Oath of Office, please make sure that:

- A. The applicant completes the "Applicant" section of the certificate.
- B. The Notary Public administering the oath completes the "Notary" section of the certificate.

How to pay the filing fee:

The filing fee for a four year commission is $80, payable either in person via cash, credit card, or check at the Business Services Division, or by mail to the Business Services Division via check made payable to the R.I. Department of State.

How to confirm your filing:

You will receive your Notary Commission in the mail in approximately one week. Your term will expire four years from the date of commission. A renewal notice will be mailed to you at the address listed, so please contact this office if you change your address.

How to maintain your commission:

Visit our website at www.sos.ri.gov/divisions-notary-public for information on keeping your commission active and up to date.
