

Professional Manager's Certificate Program

Fundamentals of Leadership

Jan. 14, 2020

4 - 5 p.m. | Heritage Dining Room

Speaker: Dr. Drew Ziegler

Learn how to unite staff around a vision, build a strategy for achieving the vision, attract and develop talented employees, remain focused on goals, re-imagine how to improve operations, and continue to develop oneself professionally.

This presentation is a required seminar in the Professional Manager's Certificate program. Faculty, staff, graduate students, and full-time students are eligible to participate.

About the Speaker

Dr. Andrew (Drew) Ziegler chairs the Methodist University Department of Political Science and also directs the Lura S. Tally Center for Leadership Development.

Before coming to Methodist, Dr. Ziegler served as an infantry officer in the United States Army, retiring as a lieutenant colonel. Dr. Ziegler enjoys traveling, jogging, ballroom dancing, and community service.

He and his wife, Kalli, are active in Fayetteville through the Greater Fayetteville Chamber of Commerce, the Arts Council, their church, and other groups. They have two married daughters and three grandchildren.
