

We were asked:

Q1. A full list of funding provided to television companies for the purposes of making programmes for each of the last ten years.

We replied:

A1. The Wales Office has provided no funding to television companies for the purposes of making television programmes in any of the last ten years.