

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSIONS AND SUGGESTIONS

A. Conclusions

Based on the findings as presented in previous chapter, conclusions were drawn as the following.

- 1) There were 6 types of figurative language in “Bahasa Inggris” Textbooks of students of class X of accounting program. They were personification, hyperbole, metonymy, euphemism, antithesis, and repetition. It was found that 5 hyperbole, 4 personification, 2 metonymy, 2 euphemism and 1 antithesis and 1 repetition.
- 2) The dominant type of figurative language in the “Bahasa Inggris” textbooks in class X Accounting program in SMK NEGERI 13 MEDAN was hyperbole with 5 that percentage 33.3%.

B. Suggestions

In line with the findings, suggestions were staged as follow:

- 1) For the other researchers, hopefully this research will be useful to conduct another researcher further to improve their knowledge.
- 2) Since this study was only conducted in one class, the number of bigger sample would be useful through this research.
